Strength for Motherhood
MOTHERHOOD is not a time for experiment, but for proven qualities, and nothing exceeds the value of good cheer, needful exercise and SCOTT'S EMULSION.
SCOTT'S EMULSION charges the blood with life-sustaining richness, suppresses nervous conditions, aids the quality and quantity of milk and insures sufficient fat.
Its COD LIVER OIL feeds the very life cells. Its LIME and SODA help avoid rickets and make teething easy.
14-18 Avoid Substitutes. No Alcohol.

C. J. Johnson started to Portland this morning with two cars of cattle.

Mrs. August A. Anderson of Redmond is in Prineville visiting friends.

Tomorrow night there will be a public candy pull at the I. O. O. F. Kitchen at 7:30. Everyone invited. Admission 10c.

Allen Wilcoxon and Harris & McSherry were among the shippers from Redmond to Portland with stock the last of the week.

Matt Clark and Wm. Mason of Portland were in Prineville and other parts of the county yesterday in the interests of their timber holdings here.

Mary Elizabeth Compton, 13-year-old daughter of Sam Compton, died at the home of Clyde Kinder in this city yesterday of tubercular meningitis. Funeral services will be held from the Kinder residence tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Christian Science services at Masonic Hall each Sunday at 11 a. m. Public invited.

The Rotarian Club Quartett of Portland will appear at Commercial Club Hall Thursday evening, March 4. All the reserved seats for this event have been sold for several days. A packed house is expected.

Della Crowder Miller, impersonator, presented an evening's entertainment at Commercial Club Hall on Thursday of last week. She is unquestionably an artist of the highest order and showed remarkable talent in a series of numbers, the best of which was her presentation of Ben Hur.

Miss Conway will review the Plays of Lady Gregory at the meeting of the Literary Department of the Ladies' Annex next Monday evening at 7:30. This is the second evening of the Irish plays in the course, Mrs. Van Morse reviewing two plays by Synge in her own charming manner last Monday.

Rev. H. O. Perry, superintendent of The Dalles district, arrived in Prineville Monday to hold the second quarterly conference at the M. E. church. He says that the work of his church in Central Oregon looks very prosperous. His district comprises eight counties in Oregon and four in Washington.

Judge Bradshaw Holds Pool Halls Must Close

District Attorney Wirtz received word today of a decision made in the circuit court at The Dalles in the case of Dennis Cormody of Bend which involves the Sunday closing of pool rooms.

Cormody was arrested by Frank Elkins and District Attorney Wirtz some time ago for having his place of business open on Sunday. He was convicted in the justice court and the case was appealed to the circuit court. Judge Bradshaw holds that pool halls shall be closed on the Sabbath and this ruling will no doubt govern throughout this district.

Madras Entitled to Cellar Championship

By losing to the Crook County High School basket ball team last Saturday night, the Madras High School quintet will have no opposition for the right to the 1915 Cellar championship of the Central Oregon Inter-Scholastic League. The C. C. H. S. squad handed a 68 to 11 defeat to the Madrasites with little trouble.

The stars of the home team were "Bub" Estes and Frank Brosius. "Bub" shot three sensational field baskets, while Brosius had a great deal to do with keeping the Madrasites from scoring many points.

John Campbell did good work for the Madras High, while "Ferd" McCallister and "Chet" Kincaid, who scored 20 and 12 points, with Harold Charlton playing a strong game at guard, helped Estes and Brosius feature for the C. C. H. S.

A potato starch plant costing from $10,000 to $15,000 and properly conducted during a season will take care of the cull product from about 5000 acres, according to figures gathered by the University of Oregon school of commerce.

Mrs. John Kilkenny, wife of a prominent Heppner woolgrower, was killed instantly at the Hotel Pendleton at Pendleton by falling down the elevator shaft. She dropped three stories, landing on the concrete floor of the basement.

The farmers' institute at Woodburn was a pronounced success in every respect. More than 500 farmers were guests at the luncheon of the Woodburn Retail Dealers' association in the armory. This was the largest gathering of the kind in the history of Marion county.

C. C. H. S. Notes.

At the beginning of the second semester all the classes in English began the study of new classics. The seniors have been with Addison in the London Coffee House of Queen Anne's time, and have been taking a pleasant sojourn with good Sir Roges de Coverely at his country estate. The juniors have been led by Hawthorne through the mysterious and uncanny yet beautiful "House of Seven Gables." The sophomores have gone back farther still to the mythical King Arthur in Tennyson's "Idylls of the King." They have also studied verse structure and have composed poetry of their own. The freshmen have had their first glimpses of Shakespeare in the "Merchant of Venice" and have found him very interesting. The new freshmen who came into high school at the beginning of the semester are now reading "Ivanhoe" with eager interest. There is always something interesting in the English department.

Monday was vacation in hot or of Washington's birthday.

C. C. H. S. won the basketball game over Madras Saturday night with a score of 68 to 11.

A C. C. H. S. Teachers' Club was formed last Thursday for all Normal girls or any teachers who wish to become members. The dues are two one cent stamps. The object is to give helpful suggestions to former Normal girls or receive same from those who are teaching. It is a mutual benefit club and its organization was suggested by several former graduates. Audrey Noble is president of the club. Edna Merritt is vice-president and Glennie McBain, secretary-treasurer. The committee appointed by the president to draw up the constitution and by-laws are Adeline Detrieck, Elma Noble and Ila Knox. The first programs will be held the second period on the fourth Friday of each month. Visitors are welcome.

The Alphas were the victorious society in the Declamation contest last Friday evening. Helen Elkins (O) won first place in the Oratorical division and Orville Yancey (A) second. Beatrice Johnson (O) won first place and Estelle Conway (A) second in the Declamation division. Pearl Russell (A) won first and Frank Broderick (O) second in the Humorous division. The societies have an even score for the banner now, each society having won two years of victory to its credit. The one winning the banner next year will keep it.

FATHER WRITES SLOGAN SON DONATES POSTER
1915 Rose Festival Receives Work of Art from Famous Oregon Boy.

Portland's 1915 Rose Festival has a unique poster—the most artistic ever used and it is the work of an Oregon boy, Fred G. Cooper, now one of the world's foremost artists. His father, J. C. Cooper, of McMinnville, Oregon, wrote the winning slogan, "The Whole World Knows the Portland Rose." At his father's personal request young Cooper donated the poster to incorporate the slogan. Portland has cooperated with Seattle, Tacoma, Walla Walla and Spokane in securing conventions that will bring more than 250,000 visitors to Washington and Oregon.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

E. Lee Campbell was appointed by President Wilson as postmaster at Eugene.
