Harry Farnsworth Celebrates Birthday

One of the most enjoyable events of the senior class during their four years in high school occurred at the home of Mrs. Norris Morgan last Saturday evening. The occasion was in honor of her son's nineteenth birthday. At 7 o'clock all nineteen seniors and Prof. Smith were present. The living room was tastefully decorated in blue and gold and the dining room in black and crimson, the class colors.

Promptly at 7:30 Harry Farnsworth lead the way to the dining room. Mr. Laffer was there to take a flashlight, after which savory odors began issuing from the kitchen. A delicious four-course dinner was served by Pauline Truesdale and Bertha Lambert. Hobart Belknap was toast master and a number of the class responded with
