Sunday Closing Must Be Observed in Oregon

In the decision, as announced last week, given by Judge Bradshaw in Chambers at The Dalles in the case of State of Oregon against Dennis Carmody, a pool hall owner of Bend, the judge has held the so-called Sunday closing statute valid. In other jurisdictions the law has been variously held to be valid and invalid. The decision comes as the climax to the movement started last spring by District Attorney Wirtz and Ex-Sheriff Frank Elkins to close the pool-rooms and bowling alleys throughout the county on Sunday, which met with resistance at Bend and threats to begin damage actions against the sheriff and his bondsmen.

The law held to be valid by Judge Bradshaw, however, applies to places of business other than simply pool halls and bowling alleys, the exact wording being as follows:

Section 2125. If any person shall keep open any store, shop, grocery, bowling alley, billiard room, or tippling house, for the purpose of labor or traffic, or any place of amusement, on the first day of the week, commonly called

"Sunday," or the "Lord's Day," such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not less than $5 nor more than $50; provided, however, that the above provisions shall not apply to theatres, the keepers of drug stores, doctors shops, undertakers, livery stable keepers, butchers and bakers; and all circumstances of necessity and mercy may be pleaded in defense, which shall be treated as questions of fact for the jury to determine when the offense is tried by jury."

A case involving the question decided by Judge Bradshaw is now pending in the supreme court, having been appealed from Lane county and will be determined by the highest court some time this spring.

The Carmody case was taken before the circuit court upon a stipulation of facts in order to get a ruling on the law, Carmody being represented by Attorneys Vernon A. Forbes and H. H. DeArmond of Bend and the state by District Attorney Wirtz. The case was appealed from Justice of the Peace Bowman's court where the last case against Carmody was brought. Judge Bradshaw found Carmody guilty and fined him $20.
