poet, put in rhyme the following words of wisdom:

Kersmith & Kickshaw deal in wax and Chinese eggs and carpet tacks. They are good sports in every way; they cough up money every day to make the town a better place in which to live and push your face. They hire a dozen clerks or more, who wait on patrons in their store. Our crossroads burg they would upbuild, and see it with glad people filled, and to that end they blow their seads like truly patriotic lads. But when we need of eggs a few, we send away to Timbuctoo; and when a carpet tack we wish, it's shipped from Ypsilanti, Mich. Each has the notion in his dome that things are best away from home, and so we order hods and hats, and humming birds and maltese cats, from strangers in some town remote, who would not know us from a goat. We ship away our hard earned kale, and get our fourth rate junk by mail. Say, are we seers, or are we fools? Those strangers don't support our schools, or keep our peeler on his beat, or help to pave the Court House street. They do not paint the village pump or build a fence around the dump. If our old burg were blown away they wouldn't care a bale of hay. Kersmth & Kickshaw ought to get

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, was as engineer in an electric plant in Detroit. Charles Murphy, the baseball millioniare, was a reporter on the Cincinnati Enquirer. Thomas H. Ince, the motion picture magnate, was a comic-opera comedian, glad to get $50.00 a week. Charlie Weegman, owner of the Chicago Federal baseball team and a string of restaurants, was a waiter in a quick lunch room. And so it goes, The list could be strung out to a column's length. Therefore, when you hear a boy or a young man complain that he has no chance, take him by the arm and tell him a few things. There never was a time in the world's history when there were more opportunities for a young man to push to the front. There never was a time when a little intelligence and deter-Are you swatting the fly? Have mination would provide a man with you seen any flies to swat? If not, a competence in a few years.
