A jury at Astoria returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Sam Alakkaia, who was charged with the death of John Tuie, drowned in Youngs Bay, following an altercation.

The industrial club enrollment is about three times as great as it was last year in Wasco county, according to a report from Field Worker Maris to State Superintendent Churchill.

Upon recommendation of Superintendent Minto, the state board of control has adopted a merit system for the penitentiary which is designed to improve the morals of the prisoners.

Ex-President Tatt will come to Portland August 23 to address a joint meeting of the Oregon and Washington State Bar associations which will hold their annual conventions here simultaneously.

At a meeting of the Roseburg carnival committee it was decided to extend this year's strawberry festival over nearly an entire week instead of two days, as first anticipated. The festivities will begin May 18.

The new road through Cow Creek Canyon, in southern Douglas county, is completed. The new piece of the Pacific Highway is about 2 1/2 miles in length and eliminates some of the worst grades between Portland and San Francisco.

Governor Withycombe has reappointed Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of Dallas as a member of the board of regents of the University of Oregon, and also appointed C. C. Colt of Portland and H. B. McKinney of Baker members of the board.

Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, will give a series of three lectures during the session of the Oregon Agricultural college summer school, which opens June 14 and continues for six weeks. Dr. Claxton will speak on July 5, 6 and 7.

May 22 will be "Good Roads day" in Linn county. This date has been chosen by the Linn county court as the day on which all of the residents of the county, whether residing in city or country, will be asked to take a holiday from their usual vocations and labor upon the roads.

The last and longest of the big tunnels on the Willamette-Pacific has been broken through. This tunnel is the one just south of the Umpqua and is 4300 feet long. Excavation work on the other eight tunnels between the Siuslaw and Coos Bay is completed and all grading is finished.

Fifty-eight accidents, none fatal, were reported to Labor Commissioner Hoff during the week. The logging, shingle, box factory and sawmill activities caused a total of 20 accidents, while 18 mishaps occurred among those employed by railroads. Six were injured in paper mills. The other accidents included a wide range of occupations.

About 2,000,000 trout eggs have been taken at the Spencer Creek hatchery, near Klamath Falls, and it is hoped to get about 3,000,000 before the spawning season closes. About 500,000 eggs will be hatched at the Spencer Creek hatchery and the remainder will be shipped to the Bonneville hatchery as soon as they are eyed. It is expected that, after the eggs are hatched and the young fish reach the fingerling stage, a large number of them will be returned to Klamath county to be liberated in the streams there.

The high school will close on May 28.

C. C. H. S. Loses To Enterprise

The Crook County High School team was defeated in the state championship contest at Enterprise by that team one evening last week. The school was represented there by Stacy Smith and Frederick L. Rice who put up so hard a fight that it was a hard matter for the judges to reach a decision. As the debate was held at Enterprise of course the decision fell to the home team.

The C. C. H. S. was within two of the state championship, having defeated all comers excepting Enterprise and Salem, which teams they did not meet. As the matter stands, it leaves the local school third best in the state out of 42 schools in the contest. The team was accompanied to Enterprise by Prof. Baughman.
