John Hunsaker now has a trailer for his light truck which he is using on the run from Prineville to Meadow. All the stage lines out of Prineville now are operating motor trucks instead of horse drawn vehicles which offers quite a contrast to the condition that prevailed ten years ago.

The Baccalaureate Sermon for the Crook County High School will be preached on Sunday evening next by Rev. E. C. Newham. The service will be held in the Methodist Church at 8 o'clock and will be a union meeting. The pastors of the other churches will take part and a suitable program of great interest will be followed. Come early to get a seat.

Miss Hewes, Miss Hawley, Miss Jefferies, Miss Allen and Mrs. Gray will attend the Summer Session of the University of California which convenes June 21 at Berkeley.

The opportunity offered for instruction is an unusual one, due no doubt to the great exposition.

Prominent educators from all parts of the United States will hold classes in special subjects.

There will be a distinguished party of officials of the Hill railway system in Prineville the first of June. The party, which is headed by Professor Shaw who is well known here includes Professor G. T. Wilson, F. W. Graham, C. E. Avery, D. C. Freeman and other prominent men. They will hold a meeting at Grimes school house at 2 P. M. on June 3, and at the Commercial Club in Prineville in the evening at 8.

C. J. Spooner, who purchased the R. E. Jones ranch on the Ochoco, arrived in the city from Portland Monday morning. Mr. Spooner has had surveyors at work on his place this week, and stated to The Journal that he intends to convert the place into a first class dairy and hog ranch. If his plans do not fail, he expects to ship in a carload of heifers from Tillamook county within a short time. Mr. Spooner is enthusiastic over the prospects for Crook County dairymen and hog raisers, and has the means and ambition to help in the further development of Crook County.
