THE CITY

Norman Weigand of Lamonta was in town last week.

C. C. O'Neil from Riverside was in Prineville a few days last week.

I. M. Mills left Friday morning, returning to his ranch near that city.

H. A. Kelly and George Brewster left for Suplee Monday on business.

G. W. Noble and R. L. Jordan returned the first of the week from a business trip to Condon.

Mrs. Grant and Glen Ridgeway of Culver were in Prineville the first of the week on business.

Sam Newsom and wife returned to Post Wednesday. Mr. Newsom is a prominent rancher there.

Services will be held in the Catholic Church Sunday July 11, at 11 A. M. Every one is welcome.

Attorney Lake M. Bechtell left yesterday for Portland. He will return to Prineville tomorrow.

J. E. Whistler has moved his carpenter shop to Ed Harbin's where he is prepared to do all kinds of wood-work.

Harry Robertson from Sisters was in town one day last week, and took back the stallion Comet which he purchased from Joe Lister.

There is to be a celebration at Howard on July 5. Racing, various contests and dancing will be the order of the day. A large crowd will be present.

J. H. Keene and R. V. Randall arrived the first of the week from Eugene, and have taken charge of the repair and service department of the Ford Garage.

Rev. B. F. Harper, field worker for the Presbyterian church, passed through the city Tuesday evening, on his way from Paulina to the railroad.

Mrs. Custer, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hughes, left for Sheridan, Wyoming last Tuesday. Mrs. Custer's home is in that city.

C. W. Lane and sister Mrs. E. L. Walker, left Tuesday morning to join Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker of Hood River Valley for a short outing on the Lower Metolius.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Johnson, Viola and Beatrice and Weaver Melton returned yesterday from a month's trip through California, Mexico and Southern Oregon. They traveled about 2800 miles, making from 110 to 250 miles per day in their car, and report some excellent roads, and some very bad ones. They spent some time at each of the fairs, visited Crater Lake and many other points of interest.

Mrs. James Street who has been quite sick, is improving.

Miss Ronea Campbell spent Sunday visiting her sister in Redmond.

Miss Eva Street returned from a trip to Burns the last of the week.

H. G. Webb brought in a stalk of rye Saturday that measured seven feet nine inches.

Mrs. Kate Liggett is in Prineville from North Yakima, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Frankie Olmstead and Mrs. White spent several days recently visiting with their sister Mrs. George Taylor near Roberts.

R. W. Zevely and M. D. Powell with their respective families, left the first of the week for Klamath Falls where they will celebrate.

Richard Crooks, brother of J. H. Crooks of this city was buried Sunday at Jefferson, Oregon. Mr. Crooks was 76 years of age at the time of his death.

George Ray and wife returned to their ranch near Post the first of the week, after spending the winter in Prineville. Mr. Ray who has been quite sick, is rapidly improving.

For the accommodation, of passengers, The Oregon Trunk will hold their North Bound train at Bend until 10 P. M. on July 5 and 7, 1915. Account of Chautauqua.

Next Sunday there will be bible school at the Christian church at 10, preaching at 11, young peoples' meeting at 7, and preaching at 8. The evening subject is, "Some Objections Considered."

Max Hirst is at the Home Hospital suffering from an attack of lock-jaw. He was injured some ten days ago, and symptoms developed about a week ago. This is a very unusual case, and very dangerous. The patient is in a critical condition.

The annual county summer school closed yesterday. While the attendance was small, much interest was shown on the part of the teachers taking the course. Many of them are taking the teachers examinations this week.

T. N. Balfour left Friday for The Dalles where he will make his home in the future and perhaps engage in business. Mrs. Balfour left the week before and they are already settled housekeeping. Before leaving last Friday, Mr. Balfour said in the Journal office that it was like pulling an eye tooth to leave Prineville.

The governor has appointed stock inspectors in the state in accordance with the recommendation of the stockmen's association. L. N. Nicholas of this city is inspector for Crook county, Bidwell Cram of Gateway being inspector for Jefferson county. W. H. Moody of Shaniko is inspector for Wasco county.

Remember Saturday is the big day at Redmond and commencing Friday there will be six big days at Bend. Prineville is having no celebration and the Prineville country will have a fair here in October, at which time we will expect attendance from our neighboring towns. Let's show them that our heart is in the right place by attending these functions liberally.

Drama Tonight at Opera House

"Is Marriage a Failure" to-night at the Opera House. This play is being put on by local talent, and is a comedy that will do any one good to see. Besides the merit of the play, the proceeds are to be applied to local causes, which should insure a large audience.

There will be specialties between acts by Smelzer, Barnes, Holeseher and like artists.

"Independence Day" will be observed at the Methodist Church on Sunday, July 4. The pastor's subject for the morning will be "The Day of Independence." In the evening, "America and the Peace Problem."

Loran Barber and Lena Telfer both of Jefferson County were married at the Methodist Parsonage on Monday June 28. Present as witnesses were Mrs. W. F. Barber mother of the bridegroom and Mrs. P. H. Faulk sister of the bride.

Mr. Randall had year of experience in the Ford service and is a good man in the line. Mr. Keene has been foreman of the Ford Garage in Eugene for the past four years, and is an expert in the repair of all makes of cars. They guarantee their work to be satisfactory, which will no doubt get them much business.

Prineville's ball team will leave tomorrow for Klamath Falls where they will play three games, and from there proceed to Fort Klamath where two more games will be played. The team will be gone from home just a week, and will play five days. There are fifteen men in the party, and the Journal confidently expects to receive some such telegram as this one week from today, "Our conquest of the south has been successful." Same carrying the signature of Manager Dobry.
