SEVEN MEASURES HELD UP

Referendum Petitions on Washington Legislative Acts Successful.

Olympia, Wash.—Completion of the official count of the seven referendum petitions, filed against as many acts of the recent legislature, showed a large excess of signatures on the petitions against each measure. The measures thus referred to the voters at the general election of 1916 are:

Measure No. 3—Requiring initiative and referendum petitions to be signed at registration offices. Measure No. 4—Requiring recall petitions to be signed at registration offices. Measure No. 5—Legalizing political conventions and binding candidates to support platform. Measure No. 6—Prohibiting picketing. Measure No. 7—Requiring certificate of necessity for competing public utility. Measure No. 8—Limiting port district indebtedness. Measure No. 9—Establishing budget system for cities and counties.

German Move on Labyrinth Falls. Paris.—Directing a frightful fire of heavy explosives against their positions, the Germans attempted to blow the French forces out of the "labyrinth" region the war office has announced. The attempt failed, and preceded by a hail of asphyxiating bombs, the enemy delivered a general onslaught against the French positions. This was also repulsed, when, caught under a cross fire of shells and gas bombs, heavy losses were inflicted upon the German forces.

Alden J. Blithen, Of Seattle, Dead. Seattle, Wash.—Colonel Alden J. Blithen, for nearly 20 years editor and publisher of the Seattle Times, died at his home here of a complication of diseases.

Colonel Blithen is survived by two sons, Joseph, business manager of the Times, and Clarence, managing editor; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Mesdag and Mrs. Gilbert L. Duffy, and a widow, all residents of Seattle.

HAVE YOU BEEN SICK?

Then you realize the utter weakness that robs ambition, destroys appetite, and makes work a burden.

To restore that strength and stamina that is so essential, nothing has ever equaled or compared with Scott's Emulsion, because its strength-sustaining nourishment invigorates the blood to distribute energy throughout the body while its tonic value sharpens the appetite and restores health in a natural, permanent way.

If you are run down, tired, nervous, overworked or lack strength, get Scott's Emulsion to-day. It is free from alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.
