

THE JOURNAL'S

Popular Voting Contest

Ludwig Piano, Columbia Grafonola and Many Valuable Prizes for Journal Workers!

Commencing Friday, August 20 and continuing for a few short weeks, The Journal will Give Absolutely Free a Number of Valuable Prizes! You are allowed just 15 days in which to win a 15-Jewel Elgin Watch!

First Grand Prize

$430.00 Ludwig Piano

The first grand prize, which will be given away absolutely free to the person having the greatest number of votes at the close of the contest, is a style B Ludwig piano. It is finished in mahogany, and has a stool to match.

This instrument is the first one of this style Ludwig to come into this part of the country, and is the last word in piano making in the Ludwig factory. You are invited to call at Adamson's drug store and inspect this beautiful instrument, play it yourself, or have your friend try it. You will agree with us that it is a wonderful instrument.

The picture of the instrument which is published herewith is an exact reproduction of it.

START EARLY

This contest is going to start with a rush and continue lively until the finish, so that if you wish to get into the race, do not hesitate, but make up your mind to go in hard and start early. Start now. Your friends will help you if you start early and help yourself and besides the votes will be easier to get if you get out before many other candidates get into the field.

SEPTEMBER 4, AT 8 P. M.

We will give away a beautiful little Elgin ladies' gold watch at this office on the evening of September 4, at 8 o'clock, and the votes you get in winning this watch will all count in the final race for the grand prizes.

This watch is a 15-jewel, Elgin movement, in a 25-year gold filled case, and will be given to the one having the greatest number of votes in this office on the day and hour named above. Do you want it?

HOW TO GET VOTES.

These prizes will be given only on votes received by the various candidates, and brought or mailed to the Journal. You will be credited with 1000 votes on the Journal books by filling out the nominating coupon which is in this issue of the Journal, and each 10-vote coupon that you clip out, fill in and mail to this office so that they reach us before the date printed thereon will count. All new subscribers will entitle you to 2000 votes each, and renewals to 1000 votes each. Should you collect for someone that is two years in arrears for example, and get $1.50 for a year in advance besides, you will be credited with 1000 votes for each year collected for, or 3000 votes.

WHO MAY ENTER THE RACE

This contest is open to everyone who wishes to enter it, excepting employees of the Journal, or relatives of the employees or management.

All contestants will be given an equal opportunity, and no favors will be shown any one that will not be extended to the others as well. We will do everything possible to assist candidates in the way of advancing ideas for candidates to work out, but in all these all candidates will be treated alike.

PRICE OF THE JOURNAL.

The price of the Journal is $1.50 per year, whether the subscription is new or renewal. For each $1.50 collected on a subscription that is now running you will be credited with 1000 votes, for each subscriber who pays $1.50 or more in advance 1000 votes will be given for each $1.50. No votes will be given on less than a one year subscription.

The second grand prize is a Grafonola Leader, and the latest creation of the Columbia Graphophone company.

As its name indicates, this machine is a cabinet enclosed graphophone, the mechanism of which is driven by a powerful multiple spring motor, and is silent and efficient.

As may be seen in the picture, which by the way is an exact reproduction of the instrument, there is a cabinet for the records, and the sound is controlled by opening or closing the sound control shutters. The most pleasing effects imaginable are thus produced, and by the regulation of this instrument, the widest possible variations of good music are obtainable.

The cabinet is furnished in mahogany and will ornament some home at the close of the Journal's subscription campaign, absolutely without cost to the winner.

The third grand prize is a three-month's course in The Dalles Business College, tuition paid by the Journal. This tuition will cost any one $40, and will admit the one receiving this prize to instruction in any of the courses taught in the school.

The fourth grand prize is a Seth Thomas eight day parlor clock, finished in imitation marble, and is one of the most beautiful of these clocks. It is on display at L. Kamstra's jewelry store.

The fifth grand prize is an elaborate cut-glass piece, which may be seen at the Prineville Drug Company's store.

RULES.

This contest is open to any one who cares to enter, excepting the employees of the Journal, or relatives of the editor, or member of the family of any Journal employee.

No one will be allowed to solicit votes or to mention votes to anyone who is subscribing for the Journal, while such party is in the office.

No limitations will be placed upon the number of persons that may solicit and work for any one candidate. We will send receipt books to any one the candidates wish us to, who will in turn work for the interest of said candidate.

All prizes will be awarded on the dates and in the manner advertised in the Journal, and any statement to the contrary shall be disregarded. If the successful candidate is not in the office at the time, the prize will be sent to them at once.

No one will be authorized to make statements to the awarding of prizes or the standing of contestants but the editor, or in his absence, the foreman.

All contestants will be given equal opportunities, and the standing of the different candidates, their names and the number of votes held by each will be published every Thursday afternoon in the Journal.

Second Grand Prize $75 Columbia Grafonola

The first special prize will be given at this office on Saturday, September 4.

This campaign will be lively from the start, so if you want any of these prizes, get in early. Come to this office, if possible and we will assist you in getting a start.

There is no question about what you will receive; the matter rests entirely with you. To the hard worker goes the best prize. Is that you?

All who do not win a prize and work until the close of the contest will be paid 10 per cent of all money turned in by them. You can't lose.

Nominate your friend or yourself Today! Come and get a Receipt book and go to work.

Get away from the start early and you can stay ahead until the close of the contest
