

THE CITY

James Redmond was in Prineville on Monday.

I. L. Ketchum returned from a trip to Bend yesterday.

Clyde M. McKay of Bend was in the city on business yesterday.

O. C. Claypool made a trip to Portland the first of the week.

Adolph Schreckel is the new man in the W. J. Hughes Saddle shop.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cox at Grizzly, on Tuesday, a girl.

Mrs. William Pollard has been visiting with her daughter in Portland for the past two weeks.

Miss Helen Elkins opened a school on Crooked River near Roberts on Monday of this week.

The sermon at the M. E. church Sunday will be especially for young women. All are invited.

J. F. Blanchard is the local agent for the Studebaker Cars. He sold one last week to J. J. Johnson.

Rev. D. Loree will preach at the Baptist church at the usual hours Sunday morning and evening.

The Oregon Trunk train from the north did not arrive at Redmond until eleven o'clock this morning.

Mrs. and Miss Adams, mother and sister of Mrs. E. H. Smith of this city are visiting at the Smith home.

Thomas J. Hill has been appointed choir leader for the Methodist church for the winter, which insures the people good music.

A mad coyote was killed Monday night about 11 o'clock by Owen Jones at the Frank Cox ranch about three miles west of Prineville.

A concrete walk is being built on Second street across the front of the property which is owned by the masons.

Al Coleman, an old time barber who is well known here, has opened a shop in the Morris Building on Main street.

Bishop R. L. Paddock will lecture at the Presbyterian church in this city Saturday at 7:30 and will preach in the same church at 11 on Sunday. Everyone invited.

A large band of sheep owned by J. N. Williamson passed through Prineville Monday morning on their way to the railroad, where they were shipped to the Portland markets.

The Boy Scouts of America will meet next Tuesday evening at the head-quarters for the purpose of adopting a troop constitution and by-laws and transacting any other business that may properly come before the Prineville Boy Scouts at that time, 7:30 Tuesday, October 5th. Geo. H. Ramsey, acting Scout Master

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wahn of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania are visiting at the Geo. F. Euston home. Mr. Wahn is a traveling freight agent for the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Daily grain quotations are to be had free at the office of the Pioneer telephone company. They are received each morning for the benefit of the farmers.

Ray E. Harper of Cloverdale and Miss Olive Buckner of Redmond were married Wednesday, September 22, in Redmond. Geo. H. Ramsey of Prineville, officiating.

Dr. E. Rea Norris who has been in the county jail here for several days was taken to The Dalles yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Remington of that city.

A basket social will be held at the Grimes Chapel at some date after the fair, at which time definite steps will be taken for the formation of an irrigation district in that vicinity.

Sunday School at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 in charge of the Lookout Committee led by the chairman, Mr. Still, Subject, "What will make our Society a greater Success?"

The members of the Baptist church will serve meals on the Fair grounds during the fair. Meals 35 cents, children under 12, 25 cents. For families, three meals for $1.00. Any donations will be gladly accepted. There will be a special dinner on Friday, School Day, at 50 and 25 cents.

Lowes Madison Square Company of six performers will play at the Lyric Theatre on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, of this week. Mr. Lowe has played in Prineville on several occasions in the past, and has always presented a very creditable entertainment and carried with him capable artists. Popular prices will be charged, viz. 15, 25, and 35 cents.

Kennewick, Wash., Nov. 14, 1914—To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I know Prof. V. F. Cooper, and have heard his lectures. His lectures will be an uplift to any community. From my own standpoint, I would be glad to have him in any of our churches. H. O. Perry, Supt. The Dalles District. M. E. Church.

Professor Cooper who will lecture in this city as per dates announced in another column, is a gentleman who is blind, goes about the country delivering lectures of a moral uplift nature, and has wonderfully overcome his affliction. The lost vision is remarkable well provided for by the other senses, and he radiates a cheerfulness that benefits all who meet him.

THE QUESTION ON THE LONG WINTER EVENINGS IS THE VICTROLA ANSWERS THE QUESTION

The above machines are sold the same in Prineville as they are in San Francisco or at any other point in the country. It will pay you to call and see these machines and make arrangements for one of them. We also have a supply of new records, and catalogues for the Victor records. Come get one

L. KAMSTRA, Prineville, Ore.

Chick Wright of Ashwood is in the city.

C. P. Bailey of Sisters is at the Prineville today.

Mrs. Jay H. Upton returned from a trip to Portland today.

Warren Glaze is in Prineville again after an absence of several months.

B. F. Allen, Mrs. Alf Allen, Mr. and Mrs. LaGrande arrived from Portland and will remain in Prineville until after the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Warren are visiting in Prineville from their home at Warrenton. Mr. Warren is interested in the firm Warren, Dixon, and McDowell, and his numerous interests in various parts of the state.

L. C. Morgan and wife returned the first of the week from a trip to Chicago and other eastern points. Mr. Morgan says that his father is very low, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

The big red barn owned by John Skein and situated on the road between Prineville and Redmond, was destroyed by fire last night. The fire started from an overturned lantern about 6:30 and destroyed the barn and two stacks of hay containing about 100 tons which were near the barn. Several head of stock were in the building at the time the fire started, but these were saved by prompt work.

D. W. Wilson, brother of E. J. Wilson of this city, was fatally burned in a fire which threatened to destroy the Masonic building in The Dalles last Wednesday morning, and died from his injuries the evening of that day at 8 o'clock. Mr. Wilson was janitor of the building and was in the basement at the time the fire started. The body was shipped to the old home at Tyrone, Penn., and was accompanied by E. J. Wilson of this city.

Rebekahs Hold Bonfire Meeting

The Rebekahs enjoyed one of the most delightful occasions of the year when about fifty gathered around some huge bonfires at the Oliver Powell home and celebrated their 64th anniversary with a "weenie" roast, Tuesday evening.

Much credit is due the committee who had the arrangements in charge also Mr. and Mrs. Powell for their kind hospitality.

The occasion also marked the 53rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Zell, with grandma as our guest, who enjoyed all the fun as well as the youngest of the crowd.

Only six days until the Crook County fair.

Ladies' Annex Hold Good Meeting

The literary division of the Ladies' Annex met in the Commercial parlors Monday evening at 7:30 for the first regular meeting of the year.

Miss Biggs gave a delightful review of Bernard Shaw's satirical masterpiece, "Candida" Shaw's rish humor, coupled with his keen understanding of human nature, causes him to place his characters, two men and a woman, in some rather unique situations as they were the age-old problem of the human triangle. Those present to enjoy the evening were, Misses Conway, Biggs, Sykes, Noble, Estes, and Mesdames Evans, Foster, Wigle, Morse, Adams, Bell and Walker.

Portland and Seattle Market Quotations

Portland.
Wheat—Club	84c; bluestem, 89c; red Russian, 81c; forty-fold, 86c; red tife, 82c.
Hay—Eastern Oregon timothy,	$16; alfalfa, $13.50.
Butter—Creamery,	29c.
Eggs—Ranch,	30c.
Wool—Eastern Oregon, 28c; valley,	28c.
Mohair—	30c.
Seattle.
Wheat—Bluestem, 91c; club, 85c; red Russian, 80c; forty-fold, 87c; tife, 81c.
Barley—	$24 per ton.
Hay—Timothy, $16 per ton; alfalfa,	$14 per ton.
Butter—Creamery,	30c.
Eggs—	30c.

Studebaker

Forty Horse Power
FOUR $850
ROADSTER BODY
With Full Seven Passenger Body, $885 F. O. B. Detroit
FIFTY HORSE POWER SIX $1,000

Roadster Body, with Seven Passenger Body, $1,000 F. O. B. Detroit.

The Power Car Of 1916
J. F. Blanchard Agent, Prineville

Prineville Commission House

Dealers in all kinds of FARM PRODUCE

Hay, Grain, Flour and Feed. Forwarding Storage and Commission Buyers of Hides, Pelts and Furs

JACK SUMMERS, Manager

STOP

That cough by using our White Pine and Tar (mentolated) Cough Syrup

"Our Name—Your Assurance of Best Quality"

PRINEVILLE DRUG CO.

PRESCRIPTIONISTS
Exclusive NYAL Store

Hello! Say, do you know the Pilot Butte Telephone Company has more miles of line and a larger number of subscribers than any other telephone company in Crook county and at cheaper rates? Telegraph connection is made at Redmond with all outside points. Main office Prineville, Oregon.

Too Late to Classify

STRAYED—A mare and horse came to my place recently. Brand on the horse is about like "&" and on the mare the letter "P" Owner can have same by calling on H. W. Hinkley, on Bear Creek. 45t3p.

CITY PROPERTY—Address Box 121 for a bargain. 45tf

WORK BY THE DAY—Call upon Mrs. McLean, City. 45tf.

254 ACRE FARM—220 acres under plow, all fenced with woven wire. Six miles north of Prineville. 100 acres under ditch survey. Cheap if taken quick. Address J. M. care The Journal. 46t9p.

CHEAP—18 head of good hogs, feeders, ten months old, also a few young ones. Also 18 young geese. Address or phone, H. H. Hawley, Post, Oregon. 46tf.

Just Received!

New Wall Paper and Window Shades!

in all colors and sizes!

Pure Boiled Linseed Oil, 85c gal.

A. H. LIPPMAN & CO.

Any Kind of Wood Work and Milling Work

Making Autos into Trucks. Water Tanks and similar work. Shop with Ed Harbin

JOHN E. WHISTLER

Prineville, Ore. Pioneer Phone 166