

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE IS WELL ATTENDED

Hold a Busy Two Days' Session, Closing Tuesday

PROMINENT EDUCATORS HERE

Meetings Were Held in the High School Building and Teachers Profit by Work Done

What was perhaps the most successful teachers institute ever held in Central Oregon closed here last night after three very busy days.

Teachers from all parts of the county, and practically all the teachers in the county, were in attendance.

Prominent speakers in attendance included some of the leading educators of the state. State Superintendent J. A. Churchill, B. W. De Busk of the University of Oregon, Mrs. Emma Haley Frazelle of Multnomah who is an expert in primary grade matters, Chas. H. Jones of Salem, and people of like ability were among the speakers.

Superintendent Churchill dealt largely with the higher grades and high school work. His addresses were of the highest order, and were greatly appreciated by the teachers present.

Mr. DeBusk is a marvel when it comes to the subjects dealing with the training of the child mind, and brought a new message to the local instructors in the manner in which to adapt the school work to the needs of the individual.

Mrs. Frazelle is an expert in the primary grade matters and her addresses were especially helpful to the teachers in the country schools where it is necessary to deal with all the grades under one teacher.

Present at the teacher's institute which was in session here this week there were registered the following persons:

Adwin H. Abbott, Post; Mrs. A. G. Allen, Millican; Jane C. Allen, City; Mabel L. Allen, Powell Butte; H. C. Baughman, City; Carey Burgess, Tumalo; Mrs. B. B. Balfour, Held; Margaret F. COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION RECOMMENDED

Many Good Things Would Be Possible

Community organization in this county for the purpose of eradication of Jack Rabbits as a pest was recommended in an article written for the local papers last week. No movement on or intimation that the suggestions made were acceptable or even considered by farmers and others have been received. The value of organization for the farmers was very concisely put forth by D. Macpherson while in the County in September. I am a firm believer in the needs of the Farmers' Organizations for improving our farm conditions. I am sure that aerial results can be accomplished in an organized effort to eradicate the rabbits as a pest. This is only one good reason for organized effort. Every rural community should have an association or club organization for three definite purposes; these purposes are as follows: Better Farming, Better Business, and Better Living.

All of our farm operations, our business and social dealings can be handled under such a club or association. No dues or expenses are necessary. The meetings can be held at the school house. Any work for the good of the community can be undertaken by the organizations.

The success of any organization depends upon the ability and activity of the people to be benefited thereby. Associations or clubs organized by promoters from the outside are bound to be failures unless the people themselves are interested and take an active part in supporting such organizations.

THOUSANDS PASS THROUGH GATES OF THE BIG FAIR

The eleventh annual Crook County fair opened yesterday morning with the most favorable weather conditions, and a promise of the best fair by at least fifty percent, ever held in its history.

As early as Saturday the stock commenced to arrive, and by Monday evening the barns were well crowded. Tuesday night space in the pens as well as in the pavilion and other exhibit room, was at a premium. Never before has the quantity of the stuff on display been more than one half the amount at this year's fair, and never was the quality any better.

The display in the school section of the pavilion is of higher quality if such is possible, than the displays of previous years, and in many ways reflects the advancement of the educational world.

The quantity of the work shown there also is such that it seems larger quarters will be an absolute necessity next year.

The country schools are well represented, and the work shown by them is of the same quality in most instances, as that of the city schools.

The arrangement has been changed in the art division, and the new plan is a great improvement over former years.

While many individual exhibits merit special mention, the largest exhibit from an outside source is the Tumalo display which is in charge of Fred N. Wallace and Mr. Gerking of that place.

The greatest improvement in the fair this year is the management of the amusements in such a manner that there are no delays. The free attractions are especially good, and the arrangement of them on the program is also good.

Taken in its entirety, the fair is even more than the management and the Journal have promised the people, and the attendance is surely all that could be expected and wished for.

Those who have not already attended should not fail to attend the remaining days, for they will exceed all previous fairs.

The races yesterday were close and the time fast, considering the condition of the track.

The half mile dash was won by Novelty, Cotton second, time 56.

The quarter in which six horses were entered five got away from the start in a bunch and it was a close contest to the finish.

In this Brandy took first and Wastella second, time 26.

The Ferris wheel was put into operation yesterday afternoon and the merry-go-round will be running today. It was delayed by an accident to the engine which delayed its arrival.

In Journal Popular Vote
Jessie Jones Wins Prize

Last night at the Journal office, Jessie Jones won the special prize offered for the greatest number of votes turned in during the day in popular voting contest.

The prize, which was a beautiful gold necklace, was awarded at 7 o'clock.

The prizes, which will be awarded each day during the fair, are given on votes secured from subscriptions taken, and upon the coupons which are torn from the daily programs. These coupons count only for the special prize, and are of no value after the date of issue.

By winning this special, the winner advanced herself from fourth to second position among the candidates in the race for the grand prize.

Tonight at 7 sharp, we will award the second prize, which is a ladies Waltham watch to the candidate turning in the greatest number of votes today.

The standing of the candidates in the Piano contest at 7 last night was as follows:

Pearl Osborne,	68,470
Jessie Jones,	59,180
Birdie S. Norton,	56,540
Ada Sears,	54,670
Ivy Harris,	32,290
Tessie Houston,	21,310
Abbie Wilson,	18,220
Vera Dunham,	14,780
Blanche Rowell,	12,370

TEAM DASHES OVER GRADE NEAR TOWN

A team belonging to C. Guy Wakefield, the piano man, became frightened on the grade west of Prineville yesterday when a trace broke, and dashed over the grade.

There was a piano on the wagon at the time of the accident, and the piano box and wagon were badly smashed up.

The piano itself was badly wrecked, but it will take an investigation to determine whether it was rendered useless by the accident.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE
GIRLS SERVE LUNCH

Complete Mastery of the Culinary Art is Shown

A luncheon was served by the girls of the domestic science department of the high school to the teachers and others attending the institute on Tuesday at noon.

The meal was served in the most approved style, and included everything from soup to punch and cake. Served as it was by the girls of the school, which demonstrated the practical side of the school, the meal could but impress upon those present that the school is a wonderful, and immensely practical institution.

The guests of which there were more than 100, were seated in the lower floor of the annex building, and were served quietly and efficiently by the girls from the kitchen on the same floor.

The high school board were present at the affair, and many compliments were paid to them, and justly, for the manner in which they have taken care of the county school.

Speakers on the occasion were, H. C. Baughman, State Superintendent Churchill, Superintendent Hopkins of Bend, Judge Springer, Superintendent Nash of Redmond, Mrs. E. D. Ferrill, H. T. Dealy, Mrs. H. P. Belknap, J. F. Blanchard, H. J. Overturf, Chas. H. Jones and Guy LaFollette.

After the meal was over a rousing cheer was given honoring Miss Sykes of the domestic science department, and the class of girls who served so many good things.

A display of the work of the school, which is on display on the second floor of the same building was visited by many of those in attendance.

The quality of the meal and the manner in which it was served bespeaks well of this class and its able instructor.

The regular meeting of the ladies Annex will be held with the music and art department on October 12.

The tennis tournament which is being held here this week has the following players to date.

Drake, Moore, Burdick, Hosh, and Barr from Redmond; Rosenberg, McCall, Michel, Estes, Bowman, Bechtell, and Barnes from this city.

Yesterday's contests were won in both instance by the Redmond players.

HORSE THIEF CAUGHT
HERE TUESDAY NIGHT

Was Apprehended After a 600-Mile Chase

MADE LONG HIKES BY NIGHT

Officers from Caldwell, Idaho, Vale and Prineville Figure in the Arrest

Jack Norris, a notorious character who is wanted at Caldwell, Idaho, on a charge of horse hustling was arrested on the streets here Tuesday evening when he stepped out of a saloon.

The arrest was made by Sheriff George W. Froman of Caldwell, and Sheriff Bud Farmer of Vale, assisted by John Malech of this city.

When arrested the fugitive showed fight, and only by the quickest kind of work was he prevented from using a gun.

He was tracked all the way from Idaho to this point where the horses were located, and assisted by Sheriff Knox the visiting officials have been searching the country here for the past two weeks in an attempt to locate their man.

Norris had to be handcuffed and lifted into the car before he would leave the county jail here yesterday morning.

PRINEVILLE BOOSTERS
MAKE 125-MILE TRIP

Large Party Visits Tumalo Fair and Other Towns

About sixty of the live wires from Prineville made a tour of Crook and Jefferson counties Friday and impressed upon the minds of a large number of people in all the towns practically of the two counties, that Prineville is on the map, and that the county fair is to be a good one, and that they are all welcome and urged to attend.

The start was advertised for seven o'clock, but the hour was nearer eight before the first car left Prineville.

At Lamonta the first stop was made, and after a stop of a few minutes which allowed the cars behind to catch up with the bunch, a few selections by a twelve piece band were played, advertising literature distributed, and the party moved on to Madras, arriving there after a forty minute run.

The process was repeated at Madras, with the addition of a speech by commissioner Blanchard, and a little excitement when R. L. Schee caught a team of run away mules in the crowd.

At both of these points the crowds that were out to greet the boosters were representatives.

At Metolius the school was dismissed for the occasion, a group of more than fifty children came to hear the music.

At Culver which was the next stop there was a good crowd out also and after a short stop the party hastened on to Terrebonne.

At this point preparation had been made for the Prineville people, an arch built across the street and a good crowd were out to hear the music and visit with the boosters.

The Hub city turned out well and a slightly longer stop was made there for gasoline and a few repairs
