STUDENTS' LOAN FUND GROWS APACE

Is Liberally Supported by Business Men

Two years ago the girls of the Normal department of the Crook County High School started the Student's Loan fund by voting to donate their Crook County Fair prize money to the fund as the original subscription. Last year the Methods class gave a play to raise money for the fund, realizing fifty dollars. More is required as there are some very deserving students who need financial aid, and steps will soon be taken to raise the necessary amount. During the time the Loan Fund has been in existence nineteen students have been benefitted by it. Three found it necessary to have their time extended, one has been unable to repay at all, but fifteen of the number have paid promptly with interest in full. The money has been loaned in amounts, ranging from two dollars to twenty.

At times, when the money has all been out, students have made application for loans, and then it has been that Prineville's real public spirit has been shown. If anyone ever intimates to you that Prineville isn't a good situation for the largest County High School in Oregon, tell them this:

That when funds were short the following merchants gave loan accounts, waiting as long as necessary for the fund money to be replenished—Prineville Mercantile Co., C. W. Elkins, Mrs. I. Michel, and Clifton & Cornett. The other merchants will do the same when their turn comes.

The Crook County and First National banks have several times been called upon to furnish small loans for needy students and each has promptly responded.

Out of the list of nineteen loans, only one has absolutely failed to make good, and only three have asked for extended time. That being the case, those interested in the Student's Loan Fund have decided to continue it and will soon call upon the Prineville public for aid in doing so.

Protect the Owls and Hawks is Advice

During the past two years, we have heard many farmers and even some town people telling of their great success in destroying the owls which they considered were doing great damage by destroying a few of their chickens. Owls occasionally do kill and eat a chicken, but considered from a farming standpoint, they are one of the most useful, also one of the most harmless birds with which we have to deal. They feed principally on mice, rats, squirrels, gophers, moles, worms, insects, and other vermin, and consume almost unbelievable number of them. Their habits and methods of obtaining their food have been carefully studied by ornithologists, and it has been found that one pair of owls will catch and eat from 7,000 to 8,000 mice in one year's time where the small animals are plentiful. Young owls will eat their weight in food of this kind if this amount is provided, and the old bird usually provide a plentiful supply of food for their young.

In Crook County we are well acquainted with the sage rat, the gopher and the mole, and the owl is one enemy of these pests that will destroy them in large numbers. The larger owls will destroy several rabbits for food also. If there are any who doubt the ability of owls to consume this large amount of food, or their value as a destroyer of the vermin mentioned, I would urge them to locate a pair of these birds and keep an account of the carcasses or skeletons discovered by their nest. If the owls do bother the chickens to any extent, protect the chickens from their attacks, but do not destroy the owls.

What has been said regarding the owls will also largely apply to the

Who Said Shoes?

We Say It Simply Because We Have The Goods!

We have always had the largest shoe stock in Prineville and expect to continue to have as long as we are in the shoe business. Perhaps the Peters Shoes are not the best shoes in the world, but we naturally think so because we have handled them for eight or nine years and have had very little trouble with them. We have tried most all other makes and they don't give the satisfaction the PETERS do
