

Annual Clearance Sale

Friday marks the beginning of the first big local event of the New Year. It will equal any stock reduction of the past in its number of sterling bargains and the good sound money to be saved. This will be the one best opportunity to buy that will come to you for many days, and every need for yourself and for your home for the next two months should be considered now. We are making this a sale of remnants, broken lines of all kinds from every department, closing out of winter goods, all to get ready for the big inrush of spring goods; so do not overlook a single offer for everyone will be worth looking at. See what we have to sell and don't see too hurriedly. Bring the whole family---there's profit for all.
