THE CAMPAIGN

With the new year come announcements of candidates for the various offices, and within a few short weeks the county will be teeming with their supporters of various candidates.

There is a feature however that should be fairly well settled in the minds of the voters especially before the primary, and for the best interests of candidates from the western half of the county it should be settled soon.

The instance is well illustrated in the candidacy of Harvey H. DeArmond for district attorney. DeArmond is a man who will receive strong support from his party wherever he is known and should it be the intent to leave Crook County as it is today, without a division at the coming November election, this candidate could expect support from all parts of the east side of the county which support cannot be expected in case of a division issue that is generally conceded to carry.

There are a number of candidates in the embryo who are in exactly the same position. It seems that it is to the interests of these candidates and their political ambitions that this matter be considered, and the sooner the better.

Harvey H. De Armond has announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for district attorney of Crook County at the primaries to be held May 19. The present district attorney is Willard H. Wirtz, of Prineville, who was appointed to the office by Governor West.

Mr. De Armond is at present manager of the Bend Commercial Club and city attorney of Bend. At the recent irrigation congress he was elected first vice-president. He was born in Linn county on December 30, 1884, spending his youth on a farm in Josephine county. His education was gained at the Ashland Normal school and the Oregon Law school from which he was graduated in 1910. After spending slightly over two years in practice in Medford, Mr. De Armond came to Bend to reside in May, 1913.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

C. C. H. S. NOTES.

Robert W. Osborn, Editor.

Those who know Mrs. Walker are well aware of her charm of expression and conversation and can easily conjure the picture before your minds of the one in which she told of the experiences encountered following a train wreck on the S. P. line at Roseberg.

In these she related the droll incidents which occurred while chaperon of some fifty-five college students from their vacation.

The wonderful work of reconstruction by the wrecking crew, and the way in which a colored porter and an ex-governor of Oregon, rescued a "yellow" pig from the wreck, were all graphically painted.

This will be Mrs. Walker's last year with the C. C. H. S., as she has accepted a position at the head of the Normal department in Medford.

A letter, beautiful of thought, was received by the Freshman Class from Mr. and Mrs. Hershey in gratitude for the resolutions of condolence which were sent them. The following is an extract from the letter: "We want to thank you for your kindness to our son during his short stay in your midst, and we hope for you, that you make these school years profitable ones, being always honest, upright and true." pans and six yards of linen tablecloth were presented to the Domestic Science Class by the Michel store and it is useless to explain the extent to which they are appreciated.

An electric waffle iron has been installed and waffle lunches are sold to the students and faculty during the noon hour and from the general demand for them it is likely that another iron will soon be in commission.

ORDINANCE NO. 229

An ordinance regulating or relating to the manufacture and sale of all mixtures or preparations intended to be used as a beverage, which shall contain any alcohol, within the corporate limits of the City of Prineville, Oregon; providing a penalty for a violation hereof; and declaring an emergency.

The people of the City of Prineville, Oregon, do ordain as follows:

Section 1.—It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, barter, or sell within the corporate limits of the City of Prineville, Oregon, any mixture or preparation reasonably likely or intended to be used as a beverage which shall contain any alcohol, independent of any other test of its intoxicating character; and the finding of any such mixture or preparation in the possession of any person not legally authorized to sell intoxicating liquor under the law of the State of Oregon, except in a private dwelling house not used in connection with a place of business, shall be prima facie evidence that said mixture or preparation is kept for sale in violation of this ordinance.

Section 2.—Any violation of this ordinance shall be deemed a misdemeanor; and any person convicted thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 and not more than One Hundred ($100) Dollars or by imprisonment in the city jail for not more than thirty days and shall pay the costs of said prosecution; and in default of payment of any such fine, said person shall be confined in the city jail one day for every two dollars of said fine, not exceeding thirty days imprisonment.

Section 3.—Whereas it is necessary for the immediate preservation of the peace, health, and safety of the people of the City of Prineville, Oregon, that this ordinance become immediately operative inasmuch as no ordinance or law exists in said City regulating and relating to the manufacture and sale of mixtures or preparations intended to be used as a beverage which shall contain alcohol, an emergency is hereby declared, and this ordinance shall become immediately operative and shall be in full force and effect on and after its approval by the Mayor.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Prineville, Oregon, on the 6th day of January, 1916, after the third reading thereof.

Ayes 5. Noes 0.

Approved by the Mayor of said City on the 6th day of January, 1916.

D. F. Stewart, Mayor.

Attest: E. O. Hyde, Recorder.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles?

Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows.

Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat.

Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store.

London.—As the first step in his trip of investigation into war conditions in Europe, Colonel E. H. House, personal representative of President Wilson, saw Sir Edward Grey, the British minister for foreign affairs, spending some time with the foreign office head.

WATERPOWER BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

Party Lines Are Ignored in Voting on Ferris Measure to Lease Power Sites

Washington.—The house passed the Ferris bill, which would throw open to 50-year leases public land containing more than three times as much water power as now is under development in the United States. It is estimated that in the 11 states which it is proposed to enter there are about 19,000,000 undeveloped horse-power.

Party lines were cast aside in voting on the measure. Minority Leader Mann was one of its strongest supporters. His republican colleague, Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, and other western republicans fought it, insisting that federal control would delay development of the sites.

Control of the power plants under the bill would rest jointly with the state and federal governments; except by court order, leases could not be transferred without the consent of the secretary of the interior. States having public utility boards could exercise their full powers in regulating rates for power and the issuance of bonds. In states without such boards the secretary of the interior would exercise this power.

Conciliatory Attitude by Teutons.

Encouraged by the conciliatory attitude shown by Germany and Austria in recent diplomatic exchanges with the United States, officials are considering requesting a definite and comprehensive statement pledging not only Germany but all of her allies to respect in the conduct of their sea warfare the guarantees as to the safety of American life for which this government has contended throughout the entire submarine controversy.

Officials are particularly gratified over Germany's latest note on the destruction of the American ship William P. Frye, because of its acceptance of the principle that the mere placing of non-combatants in lifeboats before a prize is destroyed is not a sufficient guarantee of safety.

This concession, coupled with the offer of Germany to pay indemnity for the Lusitania victims, has contributed greatly to the feeling that a satisfactory solution of the entire problem might be near at hand. This hope is strengthened by Austria's deference in the second Ancona reply and the assurances of Baron Zwiadnok, the Austrian charge here, that if it developed that an Austrian submarine sunk the liner Persia he did not doubt personally that full satisfaction would be given.

Suffragists Win Point in Senate.

The Susan B. Anthony amendment, providing for woman suffrage, was reported favorably to the senate by the suffrage committee.

"In our opinion, every principle upon which universal manhood suffrage rests demands the extension of its privileges and responsibilities to women," said the report. "They are subject to the laws, are taxed for the support of the government, and subject, with men, to a common political destiny."

The report was signed by Senators Thomas, Owen and Hollis, democrats; and Sutherland, Clapp and Jones, republicans. Senator Ransdell, democrat, voted for the report, but his name does not appear on it. Senator Cañon, republican, of New Mexico, dissented, and Senator Johnson, democrat, of South Dakota, did not sign the report.

Mail Seizures Bring Formal Complaint

This government has formally protested British seizures of mail from steamers touching at Great Britain's ports.

Much American mail has been held up recently. One suggestion was that Great Britain has been seeking to get bonds and other German documents being forwarded to America after having been seized in France and Belgium. The seizures have caused loss and delay to American business houses and have called forth considerable complaint.

Excitement Over Relations Allayed.

After a week of open discussion in the senate and house, congressional excitement over the foreign relations of the United States has been considerably allayed. Administration leaders appear to have succeeded in prevailing on most of their colleagues to adopt a policy of patient waiting for complete investigation of recent war zone incidents, in which American lives were sacrificed. Eventually the foreign relations committee of the senate will undertake deliberation of all matters pertaining to the European conflict which have come before it.

Steel Men Get Wage Increase.

New York.—Because of the prosperous condition attending the steel and iron trade the finance committee of the United States Steel corporation decided to increase the wages of its common laborers about 10 per cent.

You Cannot Measure Piano Value by Appearance

UNDERNEATH the highly polished veneers of a new piano lies the real secret of its tone, its construction, its durability and of your satisfaction or dissatisfaction. How may you be sure that in its purchase you have received a full dollar-for-dollar value? How are you to determine the endurance of the piano before you buy? Would you be able to distinguish between a piano at $250 and one at $600, where the difference lies?

Careful and conservative purchasers who wish the best possible for the price paid buy only pianos made in reputable factories and of houses known for the fairness of their prices and the quality of their instruments

Quality and price are the foundation stones upon which our great business has been builded, and only those factories which have earned a lasting reputation for their pianos are represented by us. Therefore you may safely trust to us your future musical satisfaction with the knowledge that your dollars buy full value and that the price paid is the lowest possible—quality CONSIDERED

Please Stop and Think before buying an unknown piano because they are an expensive investment at any price. REMEMBER THIS: Select a piano that you know has stood the test. Buy them for less at our store and you will not have to be ashamed of the tone or make.

I will be pleased to send a catalog and prices to any one and our one-price system will defend you
