

KELLEMS MEETINGS GAIN MOMENTUM

The great revival meeting that has been running for a little over a week is stirring Prineville religiously as no other meeting has done. The house has been full every evening. Last Sunday evening 309 people listened in rapt attention for an hour and thirty minutes while Mr. Kellem's told them that Hell exists, that it is in the future, that it is the most horrible place in the universe of God, and that it is eternal in duration. His argument is convincing; his logic clear, and his position unchallengeable. Mr. Kellem's speaks forcefully and interestingly at all time in love and with consideration for the position of all. He must be heard to be appreciated. You will have to attend early for people have been turned away for lack of room.

The great chorus under the direction of Homer Kellem's is singing the Gospel into the hearts of men and women. It takes unusual ability to pick up a chorus of untrained voices, junior and senior, and get harmony, melody and results in ten days. Mr. Kellem's has demonstrated that ability, and genius coupled with a talking personality. Not one of the chorus but what wants to sing and loves to sing under his direction. Even the original songs that are being sung for the first time are meeting with ready and hearty approval. Mr. Kellem's will no doubt be noted as a song writer before many years.

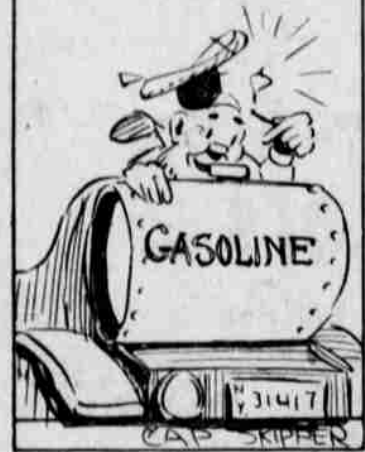

The catchy, yet delightfully sacred airs by Prof. Clinton Blanchard Smith are destined to find a place among our great and lasting tunes. He is being pronounced a wizard in music. These two working tirelessly together are putting out some truly great songs. You may hear some of them presented for the first time. Can you afford to miss such a treat?

Already fourteen have responded to the Gospel invitation and more are seriously contemplating lining up for battle against evil. The meeting will continue indefinitely. Services beginning when the house is full at 7.30 every evening.
