Educational Meeting To Be Held in Bend

A local educational meeting will be held in Bend next Saturday which will be the last of two held in this county. Subjects of a varied nature are to be discussed and teachers attending will receive credits.

H. C. Seymour of O. A. C. will give a talk on boys' and girls' club work. H. J. Hockenberry, a pioneer educator of the West, will also give an address. He is the father of M. B. Hockenberry, a former teacher of the local high school.

There will be about forty people attend from Prineville. Mrs. Walker plans to take her senior normal class and many other students will go to support the baseball game between the C. C. H. S. and Bend.

Street and Road Improvement Started

Workmen started a few days ago on the extension of Third street on the east, and opening of the Hardin road, which will connect the end of the street with the county roads in both the north and the south sides of the Ochoco valley.

A grader started to work this morning, grading the roadway, and later the street will be graded in the same manner, to connect with the road.

This is an improvement which has long been needed, and one that will be a great convenience, not only to the city, but to the stock men who are compelled to drive their stock through the streets in order to get from one county road to another in the movement of stock.

Rural Free Delivery Petitions Forwarded

People living on the Ochoco Irrigation District project will be supplied with a rural free delivery from this city shortly.

The matter, which has been discussed at various times for several months past, was taken up recently by the local commercial club, and petitions have been circulated throughout the district, with the result that 114 names were secured for a route about 28½ miles in length.

The route starts at the edge of this city, will follow the Ochoco east for about four miles, will then follow a northwesterly course until the McKay is reached at the Pitcher place, then following the county road to the Ruthfield place, returning to Prineville by Wm. Mason's and the river route.

Every request of the department has been complied with and it is thought that there will be no delay in getting the route into operation.
