

IDAHO HORSE THIEF APPREHENDED HERE

E. Jones was taken into custody by Sheriff Knox Monday evening on telegraphic advices received from the sheriff at Boise, Idaho.

ALBERT WURZWEILER FALLS TO HIS DEATH

Albert Wurzweiler, 55, fell from the third story of the Mordant Apartments, Eighteenth and Everett streets, at 2:30 P. M. Saturday, sustaining injuries that caused his death at Good Samaritan Hospital an hour later.

The impact of his body as it struck the cement walk, 30 feet beneath was heard by L. A. Eaton, janitor of the apartments, who rushed to offer assistance.

Mrs. Wurzweiler appeared to be severely injured, but his condition was not considered alarming. He was conscious, and told Mr. Eaton that he had been overcome with vertigo, which caused him to fall from the porch.

Mrs. Wurzweiler was at the hospital when he died. The son, Milton, is a student at Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, Cal. A brother William Wurzweiler is at Prineville, where they were partners in the operation of one of the largest stock ranches in Eastern Oregon.

Albert Wurzweiler came to Pendleton, Oregon, from Germany in 1882. He engaged in the general mercantile business in Pendleton and Joseph, Wallowa County. Four years ago he came to Portland.

He was a member of the Woodmen of the World, Elks and Odd-Fellows, a 32d-degree Mason and a Shriner.—Oregonian.

WEST THIRD STREET WILL NOW BE OPENED

Deeds were filed this week which convey to the city of Prineville two parcels of land, one from W. A. Booth and the other from A. J. Noble.

The parcels are the land that have kept the west end of Third street closed for years, and the transfer of the title to the city will make possible the opening of this street into Noble's Addition.

The matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the council and the street will no doubt be ordered opened.

Prineville is to have an auto hearse. Geo. Myers has ordered a Ford chassis and will build the body here.

Mother's day meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. H. P. Belknap on June 7.

SIXTY DAYS IN JAIL FOR BOOTLEGGING

Frank McManus was convicted for the crime of soliciting orders for liquor in Bend on election day in Judge Bowman's court Thursday evening.

McManus was sentenced to 30 days in jail for this crime.

He was later put under oath and requested to tell where he received the booze. This he refused to do and for this he was sentenced to another 30 days for contempt of court.

The second sentence will commence immediately after the first is completed, and will make a 60 day term.

Judge Bowman explained to the prisoner that if he decides to tell the court where the supply came from at any time during the first 30 days, the second half of the sentence will be dismissed.

McManus was convicted before a jury of six men.

ship lines. Also that is why the farmer of the Northwest feels a touch of sadness and the commercial clubs of practically every community in the northwest are swamping the wires with telegrams of condolence, addressed in most part to L. W. Hill.

Mr. Hill's death was not a great surprise. He had reached the age of 79 years and had been failing in health for some time.

His properties have been arranged for his passing and his son has been pressed into the duties he will now assume, more and more for the past ten years.

Central Oregon, all Oregon and the entire west is greatly indebted to James J. Hill. Without his initiative the probabilities are that the Central Oregon Country would yet be isolated and this same fact applies to many other communities.

In addition to his wonderful ability as a financier and empire builder, Mr. Hill was intensely human, and a character that was admired and respected by everyone.

The country has lost a great and powerful man.

tunes, those of the girls being made by themselves. The theme of the program was the dedication and launching of the good ship Success upon the sea of life, where it had arrived after four years journey on the river of knowledge.

"Tonight we launch, where shall we anchor," was the class motto around which Bernard Ramsey wove an oration full of thoughts stirring to the emotions.

Letha Evert told of the ship's sailors and the stations they expect to fill on board. During the voyage many had deserted, but others had joined the crew at the Summer dock.

Orville Yancey explained that it was with the sails of character obtained in four years of the training ship, that they hoped to reach port in safety and success.

Their outline of citizenship was forcibly imparted by Stacy Smith and with well chosen words Jessie Payne caused anchor to be weighed, while the Class of 1916 sailed away, to secure we hope, the best of what life has to offer.

DEMOCRATIC.

429 Voters Sworn in.

Less than half of the total registered voters of the county voted at the primaries. Complete returns show about 2000 votes cast and of these 429 were sworn in, making the actual registered vote less than one half. Of the 429 sworn votes 348 were republicans and 81 democrats. There were 85 ladies who voted in this list.

CHIROPRACTIC YOUR health depends upon the condition of your nervous system. Science has proven that diseases, both acute and chronic, can be remedied by Chiropractic adjustments and without the aid of drugs. Chiropractors have located specific localities for every organ and tissue in the body, thereby having control over diseased parts. You have tried all other methods without results, give Chiropractic a chance. Especially are chronic cases being successfully treated by competent Chiropractors. Every physician and scientist who investigates Chiropractic says it is logical and in accord with facts. Dr. H. E. BURDON 29t5c.
