

"KEEP OREGON DRY" MEETING ATTENDED

At the "Keep Oregon Dry" meeting held in the Baptist church Monday night it was decided to put into every voter's hand a copy of the Brewers' Amendment with legal opinions showing that it would permit open saloons.

Mrs. H. P. Belknap took charge of securing a list of registered voters to whom the facts should be sent.

Rev. W. L. Van Nuys started Tuesday on a trip to Paulina and will secure precinct leaders en route.

As many of the voters are still not registered it was decided to make special efforts to register them between now and October 7 when registration closes. It was felt that the failure of the dries to register was the most serious menace to their cause and coupled with lack of knowledge that the brewers' bill would permit open saloons to operate as brewers' agents selling by the pint bottle to be drunk on the premises bid fair to let the brewery measure be adopted.

THE CITY

Dr. Van Waters, Episcopalian minister, will hold services at the Presbyterian church Sunday at 11 o'clock.

A party was given by former schoolmates and friends in honor of Hobart Belknap last evening. Hobart will leave today for Salem where he will enter the law school of Willamette University.

A reception will be tendered the teachers and strangers in the city by the Ladies Annex on Tuesday evening September 19. Members of the Club and Annex invited to attend.

Mrs. Omar Wilson and others who have been at camp Kyle for the summer, returned to Prineville the last of the week and the camp will be closed for the season. A move is on foot for the creation of a regular summer resort at the sulphur springs near this point.

At the council meeting last night G. N. Clifton was granted a permit to construct 60 feet of concrete sidewalk and curb near his new residence on East Second street.

Plans are progressing rapidly for a reinforced concrete bridge on Main street across Ochoco. The span will perhaps be 60 feet in length, and construction work will perhaps start on the structure soon. It will cost about $4000.

One of the biggest annual events in the United States is the Round Up at Pendleton. This affair is second to none in its class and draws people from all parts of the country as no other country fair or event has ever done. Its success is due to one thing besides a good management, and that is publicity. This is secured in two ways. One is by paying a good price for space, another by the free use of complimentary tickets. The Round Up management makes a friend and a booster of every newspaperman in the west, and when any institution reaches this point, its success is assured. It opens Thursday next, better than ever.

Prize Dance

There will be a prize dance at the Club hall Friday evening, September 22, at which time prizes will be given as follows: One dollar for the lady wearing the most brilliant and attractive dress; one dollar for the gentleman wearing the most brilliant and attractive shirt; 50 cents for the gentleman wearing the most brilliant and attractive tie. Everybody come.

George McVay was indicted on a satutory charge, E. W. Gillam charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, a true bill was found against George Dalton for the illegal sale of liquor at Bend and David R. Dunn was indicted on a charge of larceny of a horse.

During the inspection of the county property, which is customary for the grand jury, Sheriff Knox was locked in the inner cell of the jail by foreman Vandervert, who proposed to leave the officer of the law there indefinitely, but a hurried call from Judge Duffy for jurors secured the sheriff's release after about five minutes confinement.

In the suit brought by G. A. Bradley against Geo. L. Brazee, a judgment was awarded by the jury for $410 and $47 costs.

County Seat Removal is Dead county division issues.

After considering these measures as they exist today there is one very important thing that is evident. That is that the matter of removal of the county seat from Prineville to Bend at this time is absolutely a dead issue and has been so for weeks past. First, the placing of the measure on the ballot in the manner in which it will appear is illegal and should the vote be favorable, which it will not, a removal would be impossible. Second, its support is decidedly weak.

This matter then is not to be considered in the casting of your vote on November 7.

That leaves the issue without further complications, on the matter of county division and will enable the voters to consider this issue in the light in which it should be considered, solely on its merits.

There seems to be less agitation and less complication in this matter than in the former campaigns, although it is yet early. There has been at least one meeting at Terrebonne and one at Redmond to date, where vigorous protests have been made against the division measure. These meetings have been attended by Prineville anti-divisionists and thus far there has been little activity reported by the supporters of the measure.

The candidates about whom centers the most spirited contest at this time are M. E. Brink and Judge T. E. J. Duffy for the position of judge of the circuit court, which is now held by the latter.

This is the most important district or county office and friends of both these men are claiming success for their favorite.

Denton G. Burdick of Redmond and Vernon A. Forbes of Bend will both be elected as representatives from this district. There were

Prince Albert gives smokers such delight, because

- its flavor is so different and so delightfully good;
- it can't bite your tongue;
- it can't parch your throat;
- you can smoke it as long and as hard as you like without any comeback but real tobacco happiness!

On the reverse side of every Prince Albert package you will read:

YOU'LL find a cheery bow-do on top no matter how much of a stranger you are in the neck of the woods you drop into. For Prince Albert is right there—at the first place you pass that sells tobacco! The toppy red bag sells for a nickel and the tidy red tin for a dime; then there's the handsome point and half-pound tin humidor and the round crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such bang-up trim all-the-time!

It answers every smoke desire you or any other man ever had! It is so cool and fragrant and appealing to your smokeappetite that you will get chummy with it in a mighty short time!

rumors of an independent candidate for this office, but the chances are very remote that such a factor will develop at this stage of the game.

E. B. Knox and S. E. Roberts are the candidates for sheriff, the former being the present incumbent. Warren Brown the present clerk and J. H. Haner of Bend are the candidates for that office; H. A. Foster, present county assessor and R. D. Ketchum are the candidates for that office; H. J. Overturf and Ernest T. Luthy are the candidates for county commissioner, the former being present incumbent and County Surveyor H. A. Kelly and Wade Huston are the opposing candidates for surveyor.

Superintendent J. E. Meyers and Treasurer R. L. Jordan are both without opposition for their respective offices as yet, but there are several days yet remaining in which to introduce independent candidates, and an occasional rumor is heard about opposition to both these men.

Brewers' Amendment

by actual poll more than half of the people do not know that such a measure has been proposed. Second, not ten percent realize that if adopted it would permit open saloons on every city corner and country cross road selling "original package" beer, (a single five-cent or ten-cent bottle). Third so much attention has been given to the so-called "absolute prohibition" measure prohibiting importation of liquor and the misstatement of its authors has been so widely circulated viz: 'that by adopting the prohibition of imports they could automatically kill the brewery beer amendment of the wets.' This is entirely erroneous. The only way to kill the beer amendment and save Oregon from the open saloon is to kill the brewery measure. A vote to do this must be marked 315 X No. That is the most important question before us this fall.

After that has been done, if it seems wise to prohibit also the importation of liquor a vote 316 X Yes will favor that.

"It would be no exaggeration to say that the failure of voters to register is our greatest danger. 50,000 are still unregistered. Only 1,000 have registered since the primary. These are mostly dries for good people are notoriously bad citizens so far as voting is concerned. Half as many signed the beer petition as voted for saloons. Thousands who would not put their name to the petition will vote for it. It will sweep Portland like a prairie fire unless people get it that it opens saloons. The big push must be for registration until October 7.

Other pointed paragraphs were: Oregon Dry has reduced our importation of beer at Portland to one-tenth what it was when we simply imported what we needed to piece out after absorbing the output of four big local breweries. The Internal Revenue Office says we imported 70,000 barrels last year. This year, if we could turn every two quart importation of whisky, brandy, rum and sacramental wine and alcohol for family use into 24 quarts of beer, and add it to the beer which is imported, we should still have but one barrel where we used to get seven barrels of imported beer to pour into our stomachs which already held the output of the four large local breweries."

Mr. Hutton is making a tour of this part of the state in the interests of the anti-saloon league.
