

CROOK COUNTY HIGH HAS VERY BUSY WEEK

Girls Giving Time to Physical Culture Stunts

DEBATE POLITICAL ISSUES

School Play is Announced for November 24—Assembly on Monday Only

Last Monday all girls enrolled in the gymnasium classes appeared on the field in their regular "gym" suits. There were present quite a number of spectators and pronounced the work fine. A great many results in the way of better standing and sitting positions are already apparent, to say nothing of huge appetites we are developing. We are always glad to have visitors. We practice Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Miss Jackson is planning a track meet for girls in the spring and Miss Wilde will direct the basket ball and tennis.

The Alpha and Ochoconian foot ball game, which was played last Thursday proved clearly the superiority of the latter in the science of the game. We hope to see another such exciting game soon in which the former will match "pep" and score with the latter.

"The Servant in the House" will be played at the Commercial Club Hall Friday evening, November 24th, by the following cast:

James Ponsonby Makesyfte, D. D., the most Reverend, The Lord Bishop of Lenashire, Leo Cram The Reverend William Smythe, Vicar, Hobart Reams Auntie, the Vicar's Wife

Violet Lister Mary, their Niece Estelle Conway Mr. Robert Smith, a gentleman of necessary occupation, Sylvain Michel Rogers, a page boy Clyde Clark Manson, a butler Rader Frawett Synopsis of the play will be given in the next issue. Remember the Cast.

Mr. Baughman announced last Wednesday morning that on account of stress of school work, debates, contests, plays, etc., that we will hold assembly only one morning of each week; "making it good"—and that morning will be Monday of each week at which time, in addition to special music and addresses we will have what we call "Senior Speeches." Alma Lippman will speak next Monday morning. It will be worth hearing—Miss Lippman's record as a student has been unparalleled.

Last Friday's discussion of the Rural Credits Amendment proved to be a "heated affair." Hendrickson did himself "proud" for his first appearance, setting forth clearly and forcibly the main issues of the question and making a strong plea for the Rural Credits Amendment. Prewett, in his usual calm and decided manner, followed with a concise summary of Hendrickson's work and a liberal explanation and argument for the negative. Visitors, members of the faculty and other students expressed their opinions, giving "a reason for the faith that was in them." Next Friday we will discuss the "Single Item Veto Amendment." Miss Doris Fischer representing the Alpha and Oscar Payne the Ochoconians.

MACKENSEN FORGES ENEMIES TO RETIRE

Huge Force of Germans, Bulgars and Turks Hammers Russo-Roumanians.

London.—Under command of Field Marshal Mackensen, who directed the Teutonic steam roller through Serbia, a huge force of Germans, Bulgars and Turks is striking heavy hammer blows against the Russo-Roumanian line.

The Roumanian fort of Constanza has been captured by the Germans, the Berlin war office announces.

On practically the entire Dobruja front, the Russians and Roumanians have given way under the first shock of this mighty offensive, official dispatches indicate.

Part of the line of fortified works behind which the Russo-Roumanians retreated when they fell back 40 miles under Mackensen's first great blows several weeks ago, have been surrendered to the enemy. The retreat, however, was orderly, the official reports indicated, the Russo-Roumanians falling back on previously prepared positions.

In all other sectors of the Balkan war theatre, the fighting is growing more violent, with the approach of winter interfering with activities on other fronts. Saloniki dispatches report the arrival of fresh Russian and Italian contingents, while the Serbs press their advance on Monastir, indicating that the allies are preparing to press their Macedonian campaign with the utmost vigor.

AUSTRIAN PREMIER IS ASSASSINATED

Vienna.—The Austrian premier, Count Stuerghk who was assassinated while at dinner by Ludwig Adler, publisher, was shot three times. Count Stuerghk was dining at a hotel when the publisher attacked him. Three shots were fired, all of which took effect, the premier dying instantly.

The assassination was purely political and was induced by his refusal to convene parliament, according to the admissions of Dr. Friedrich Adler, his assailant, shortly after his arrest.

Dr. Adler is an eccentric and super-radical Socialist, sometimes known as "the Liebknecht of Austria." He is editor of "Der Kampf."

Dr. Adler's arrest was not accomplished without the wounding of two men who leaped at him after he had fired on Count Stuerghk and before Austrian and German officers overpowered him.

The wounded men are Baron Aehrenthal, brother of the late foreign minister, and the head waiter of the hotel in which the shooting occurred.

EUROPEAN OWNERS ORDER MANY SHIPS

Heavy Demands on Shipbuilding in America to Continue After the War.

New York.—Norway and other Scandinavian countries will continue to make heavy drafts on the shipbuilding and manufacturing resources of the United States while the war lasts, and for at least a year after it ends, according to Trygve Barth, of Christiania, Norway, one of four representatives of leading financial and commercial interests in Norway, who arrived here on the steamship Bergensfjord from Christiania and Bergen. They are to remain here for some time, investigating manufacturing and financial subjects of interest to Norway. According to Mr. Barth, Norway has placed orders with American shipyards for more than $200,000,000 in new ships since the war began, which are building in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco and Philadelphia.

Also on the Bergensfjord came seven Norwegian steamship captains, who are to inspect and take back to Norway some of the vessels that have been built.

According to several passengers, the Norwegian ship owners have determined to use a great fleet of vessels in the Pacific and make a bid for a greater part of the business now conducted under the Japanese flag.

JAPANESE LABOR ON COAST FORMS UNION

San Francisco.—The first step in an attempt to solve the Japanese labor problem on the Pacific coast was taken here with the announcement that nine Japanese labor unions, which will affiliate into a separate Japanese labor council, have been formed and that the movement would be extended through California, Oregon and Washington.

B. Suzuki, president of the Laborers' Friendly society of Japan, who fathered the organization of the Japanese unions, declared that he would have 30,000 Japanese workmen in California members of such unions within a year.

When this is accomplished, as it will be in California, Oregon and in Washington, no longer can it be charged that the Japanese here are a menace to the American wage earner.

Mr. Suzuki expressed the hope that within a year or so the Japanese union would be permitted to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor.
