Herman Winans left this morning for Walla Walla and will probably spend the winter in Washington.

Mrs. W. R. Pollard left Tuesday for Bend where she will make her home with her son, Otis Logan.

Levi Knorr, of Lamonta, and Matilda Rammin were married in this city by Judge Bowman on Saturday last.

Miss Statira Biggs left the first of the week for Bellingham, Washington, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Lyons, of Crescent, were in the city the last of the week visiting relatives and friends.

Plan now to attend the Prineville-Burns football game on the local field on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day.

Don't forget the Baptist Ladies' Aid bazaar on December 9th. There will be many articles suitable for Christmas gifts.

A new metal fence in front of the I. O. O. F. and Masonic cemeteries is a great improvement to the appearance of the grounds.

H. G. Kennard has a badly bruised and sprained right arm as the result of a kick from the cranky end of his Ford "bug."

B. F. Shepherd, of Barnes, was in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Shepherd raises registered Short Horn cattle and sells bulls to stockmen in many parts of the country. See his ad elsewhere in this issue.

Don't forget the High School play tonight! It is a good play, and will be well presented. Besides the school needs your support.

The usual services will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday, November 26th. Service at Dry Creek school house at 3 p. m. W. L. Van Nuys.

Fred F. Hoelscher and family left the first of the week for Chicago where they will visit relatives and friends until after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith returned on Saturday from Portland, coming over the Columbia Highway, which Mr. Smith says is in good condition.

At the Methodist church next Sunday: Morning, "The Good Man's Triumph and the Scorned Silenced." Evening, "Heaven Builders." Everybody invited. E. T. Reid, pastor.

Do your Christmas shopping early, only a month remains. Do your shopping in Prineville too, where your dollar does double duty by remaining in the community after you spend it.

C. A. Newbill was a business visitor from Grizzly on Monday. He says that the farmers in that vicinity finished threshing the first of this week. Everyone had good crops this year.

A birthday party which was attended by about thirty guests, was given at the home of Mrs. H. P. Belknap in her honor yesterday. The affair was a surprise. Everyone reports an enjoyable time.

The annual Thanksgiving ball which is given by the Knights of Pythias each year, will be held on Thursday evening at the Commercial Club. Every Knight a floor manager. This is always the biggest thing of its kind for the year. Don't miss it.

A recital, given by the pupils of Professor Thos. J. Hill, on Friday evening last, was a very successful affair. There are 36 pupils in the class and the work done by them is excellent. The recital was private, only a few friends besides the parents of the students being present. It was held at Professor Hill's studio.

PRINEVILLE : OREGON      J. E. Stewart & Company

Dr. Hyde moved his office from the Adamson building this week to the Hyde building near the Oehoco bridge.

The people of Bend were given an exhibition of real football Sunday when Prineville and Bend played a no-score game on the Bend gridiron. The next time these teams meet, Prineville will be victorious, is our prediction.

Services at the Christian church November 26th. Bible school at 10; preaching at 11 a. m., Subject, "The Disciple's Prayer". C. E. meeting at 6:30; preaching at 7:30 p. m., subject, "God Is, and Our Relation to Him." A welcome for you. W. L. Mellvaine.

Hornbrook, Calif., the distributing center for the liquor business this side of the border line, in the recent election, went dry, something that will be a surprise to many. The people there had evidently become disgusted with being a catspaw for the business in Oregon.

A. D. Lowery, of Antelope, was a business visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. C. W. Elkins returned the first of the week from Salem where she was called by the death of her father.

The next issue of the Journal will appear on Wednesday afternoon, November 29, because of the regular publication day being Thanksgiving. The force will be given a full day off to eat turkey and recover from the effects thereof. All ad changes should be in this office not later than Monday noon.

A replevin case in which Floyd Houston brought action to recover a mare and colt alleged to have been his property from Mrs. Elsie Bailey was tried in Judge Bowman's court on Friday and Saturday of last week. A number of witnesses were examined and the property turned over to Mr. Houston by the jury.
