J. E. STEWART & CO. PRINEVILLE, OREGON

L. A. Booth, of The Dalles, is in Prineville today and will bid on the railroad bond issue tonight.

Alfons Van Laecke was in the city from Dry Lake yesterday, transacting business preparatory to making final proof on his homestead.

Alfons Van Laecke presented the first bunch of rabbit scalps, 619 in number, to County Clerk Brown the first of the week and the bounty was promptly paid on them.

Christmas business was better in Prineville this year than for many seasons past and the general expression among the merchants is that it was more than they had ever hoped for.

Henry Grimes suffered a mild attack of apoplexy Friday morning at his home north of this city. Although confined to the house for the present, his condition is not considered dangerous.

J. E. Myers left Tuesday evening for Portland where he will be in attendance at the state teachers convention. Following this he will be in Salem several days grading examination papers, and will later go to Corvallis where plans are being made for boys' and girls' club work for 1917. Six of these clubs were quite successful in this county last year.

A coyote which is supposed to have been suffering from rabies, was killed at the Raymond Calavan ranch one morning recently. He was discovered lying in the calf corral, and was dispatched without difficulty. A disturbance among the cattle on the evening before is thought to have been caused by the same animal, and the damage if any that was done is not yet evident.

At the request of many who attended the Christmas service at the Presbyterian church, the special music, pictures and a brief lecture will be repeated on Friday Dec. 29th. The service will commence promptly at 7:30. Everybody welcome. An offering will be taken to meet expenses. Services at the regular hours next Sunday. Morning theme, "A Backward Look With Thanksgiving." Evening, "A Forward Look With Hope." On account of the storm last Sunday the service at Dry Creek was postponed to next Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Annual muster and installation of Thomas M. Anderson Camp of U. S. Spanish War Veterans was held Friday night at camp headquarters in the courthouse. Euston; patriotic lecturer, W. B. Kirkham; historian John Bell. Inspection was held by Jay H. Upton.

Obituary

Robert Percy Barnes was born in Prineville, October 6, 1886, where he lived until he was about sixteen years of age. Being of a roving disposition he moved about from place to place. For about three years, however, he was in Stockton, California, where he was connected with the Holt Manufacturing Company, having become a skilled mechanic.

Last spring he went down into the vicinity of Santa Barbara. It was here that death came to him, caused by tricuspid insufficiency, induced by over-exertion in working with heavy machinery.

He was studious, industrious and ambitious, and leaves a perfect record in the memory of the many friends which he made wherever he went.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes of this city, who with six brothers and one sister mourn the loss of a loving son and brother.

INSTITUTE WAS ONE OF THE BEST HELD

The annual teachers' institute of Crook county convened at the high school building December 18-19-20, County Supt. Meyers presiding.

This gathering was marked with the usual enthusiasm which the teachers of this county bring to their every day tasks, and which indicates the high standard of the profession which is being upheld in education throughout the state.

The program for this meeting was somewhat exceptional, being four-fold in its purpose. The primary problems were handled by Mrs. Fulkerson of Salem, the rural and intermediate by Supt. Churchill, Mr. Carleton and Mr. Hockenberry; the high school by Dr. DeBusk of Eugene and our own Mr. Evans, while Dr. Carpenter of Seattle was a special feature tending to call us away from the more or less sordid things of the profession and lift us into the realm of higher and more inspirational thought in admiration for the wonder of the universe and its creator. To the mind of the writer this was no ordinary teachers' meeting. It was planned to meet, without waste of time or energy, the problems that face the teachers in their work, and certainly the practical suggestions, as well as the psychological principles underlying causes and effects in the educative process, which were so tangibly presented by Dr. DeBusk were not lacking in their measure.

BARNES ITEMS

Quite a number of jack rabbits were killed during the fall of snow last week.

The Christmas tree at Camp Creek school house, managed by Miss Evert on December 15 was a very pleasant affair. Speaking by the school children was first on the program; after the presents were distributed refreshments were served to all.

Harry Barnes, Harry Hackleman and Orville Davidson are on the sick list this week.

A. L. Bennett is visiting in Prineville this week.

John Pauche, of Fife, was on Camp Creek last week on business.

Cyrus DeVillers purchased a bunch of calves from Orville Davidson recently.

E. A. Hackleman bought 320 acres of land from A. L. Bennett the first of the week.

Miss Hazel Jeffries and Miss Elmer Hackleman came from Prineville the first of the week to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hackleman of this place.

Lew Bennett, of Dry Lake, was on the creek last week.

JULIUS STEGER IN 'THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT'

Lyric Theatre Shows "The Fifth Commandment" Featuring the Famous Actor, Julius Steger, Friday and Saturday.

"Honor thy father and thy mother" is the commandment in question. You may regard it as a lesson to children. The girl in the photoplay disregards the parental injunction and then the agony starts. She marries a man against her father's wishes.

Her husband goes abroad to succeed in his profession and fails. The young wife dies and leaves a child. The grandfather keeps the news of the child's existence from the father, who afterwards returns to America and accidentally meets his own daughter whose identity is revealed to him. The girl, on the admonition of her father starts in to honor her own father. There are scenes in Rio De Janeiro as well as in New York and a capable cast of characters supports Mr. Steger in the offering, which will assuredly be popular with lovers of the moral lesson in photoplays.
