Ben Jones was in Prineville from Lower Bridge Tuesday.

The music and art department of the Annex Club will hold its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon of next week in the club rooms. The program will be chiefly of the life and works of Blashfield, Chauncey Olcott and Daniel C. French.

The next number of the Lyceum course, now under the management of the Ladies Annex, will be staged Saturday night—two readers, one a Southerner, the other a Yankee. Surely such a combination cannot fail to please the entire audience.

The Shumia Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Collins W. Elkins last Saturday afternoon. The program consisted of a splendid interpretation of Tagore's "Realization of Life" by Mrs. T. E. J. Duffy, and a late Russian play—"On the Higher Road" by Mrs. Guy Lafolette, which was well presented indeed. The hostess was the usual charming one and served the club to delicious refreshments in her new "comfy" kitchen. Mrs. W. I. Dishman was a guest.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies Annex was held in their rooms at the club hall Tuesday afternoon. The attendance at this meeting was exceptionally good. The heads of three main committees were appointed as follows: decoration, Mr. Edwards; hospitality, Mrs. Dishman; reception, Mrs. Belknap. This was done in view of the fact that the state Federation meets with us this year and we want to begin at the beginning of the new year to do more than simply mark time in club work. Good evidence of this desire was manifested in the unanimous vote of the ladies to take over the management of the Lyceum course.
