RABID COYOTE ATTACKS MAN Chickens Killed, Cattle and Horses Bitten at Montgomery's Ranch

A rabid coyote killed five or six chickens, bit cattle and horses in the corral and made an attack on Dick Phillips at the John Montgomery ranch Saturday night about midnight, after which he made his escape in the darkness. Mr. Phillips was called to the barnyard by the disturbance and took a lantern and a pitchfork, with which to protect himself. The coyote was attracted by the light and made two or more efforts to bite Phillips before he left the corral.

The following day, Keely Messenger killed a rabid coyote two miles below the Montgomery place, which may have been the same one. A herd of 220 head of stock cattle in the feedlot, property of John E. Ryan, were nearby, and some of these were perhaps infected, Mr. Montgomery says.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

Owing to the large increase in attendance which has caused considerable congestion in the literary societies it has seemed advisable to inaugurate a new society. Wednesday of last week plans for forming this new society, on the basis of scholarship, were completed and the following students were found eligible, having made 90 or above in all their subjects last semester: Ruth Adamson, Ruth Brennan, Estelle Cosway, Alma Lippman, Frank Reinke, Dorja Fischer, Hazel Bayn, Caroline Thronson, Oza Myers, Rader Prewitt, Clara Thomas, Norma Winans, Bernadine Beeler, Wallace Cannon, Allan Vibbert, Mildred Dishman, Helen Van Nuys, Ruth Dishman, Lillian Dinwiddie, Hazel Yancey, Thelma Miller, Cora Dickenson, Mabel Bixby, Beatrice Bullard, Neva Weigand. Hereafter students to be eligible must maintain grades of 90 or above in all their subjects for two consecutive semesters. Students falling below 90 in any subject even after they have been made members of the new society will be dropped automatically from membership. These students are still members of their former societies and when winning honors will do so for either the Alpha or Ochoconians. The officers of this society will be elected soon and a name chosen. Mr. Evans is largely responsible for the scheme and it has met with high approval both from the students and faculty. Our basketball team played Bend here last Friday night, winning the game by a score of 43-29. The following night we played Redmond at Redmond, losing by a score of 33-14. We hope to play them a return game soon. Our boys played well, but showed lack of practice and speed. The team work of the Redmond boys was splendid, being exceeded only by the enthusiasm of the crowd. Wednesday after school Miss Wilde and the Senior girls, dressed in middies and bloomers took a hike into the hills northeast of the city. The idea of these hikes, for we hope to have many of them, is to develop our powers of endurance. Some of the girls have made an excellent beginning. Clyde Clark addressed the Assembly Monday morning on the subject "Thomas Edison and the Recreation of Music." Edison had a birthday Sunday, Lincoln's came Monday—and since they are both great Americans Mr. Baughman asked the students for expressions on "Which has done more for America, Lincoln or Edison?" then "which, Lincoln or Wilson?" We noted with pride that patriotism won over politics.
