RUSSELL'S STEERS HIT NEW HIGH MARK

SELL FOR $9.60 IN NORTH PORTLAND MARKET MONDAY

SHIPPED IN 7 CARS MONDAY

C. J. Johnson and Cofold & Mace Among Shippers From This Part of the State

It remained for George Russell to set a new high mark in the North Portland yards this week. He sold a car of steers Monday afternoon at $9.60 to the Union Meat Company through Kidwell & Caswell which is the new high record since the market established by S. S. Stearna & Sons two weeks ago who sold two cars of prime steers at $9.20. Other cattle from this part of the state sold at prices ranging from $9.35 to $9.50. Seven cars of stock were shipped into the yards for the Monday market from Prineville and vicinity, including two cars of hogs, one car owned by George Russell and the other by Mace & Cofold. C. J. Johnson had two cars of cattle in the shipment, Mace & Cofold one car, and the Baldwin Sheep Company of Hay Creek shipped one car. The top price paid for hogs on Monday was $12.60 and choice lambs sold as high as $13, yearlings $9.75 and ewes of a common grade brought $9.25 to $9.50. Every top market that has been established this year in the North Portland market but one was on Prineville stuff, and from the number of high grade bunches of beef in the yards near this city it is a safe prediction that Prineville stuff will become the standard of value in the markets of the Northwest for the remainder of this feeding season at least.
