LIBERTY BONDS ARE OVER SUBSCRIBED HERE

PRINEVILLE FIRST TOWN IN STATE TO EXCEED QUOTA

CHAPMAN PRESENTS A BOUQUET

$50,000.00 Mark Passed Early In The Week—Total May Reach $60,000.00 Mark Here

Prineville was the first town in Oregon to over-subscribe the Liberty Loan Bond allotment made to this city by the committee in charge of floating the loan in this state.

The $50,000.00 mark was passed early in the week, and it is thought that $60,000.00 or more may be the total for this city by the time the reports are all in tomorrow night.

As a result of the prompt action in this matter, the city was handed a beautiful rhetorical bouquet by C. C. Chapman in the Sunday Oregonian, who wrote of us in the following style:

"In proportion to population and ability to absorb liberty-loan bonds, little Prineville probably will be among the first in the state in the total amount contributed. Right now the banks of Prineville have applications for bonds totaling $50,000 and more. The seven days remaining before the subscription books close will be used by the Prineville committee in seeing rich cattle and sheep men who reside at a distance from the center of the city.

"Prineville citizens are not bragging about what they are investing with the Government. They are going about the work as quietly as their sons slipped away to enlist. Prineville regards the buying of bonds as a duty to the Government, but the button of honor issued to each applicant is worn outside, so slackers can see it. Barbers, waiters, the blacksmith, farm hands, chauffeurs, bankers, in fact everybody in sight is so imbued with the Prineville spirit that it has been no trouble for a committee consisting of Dr. J. H. Rosenberg, E. J. Wilson and H. Baldwin to raise the money.

Grain Prices Enrich

"Prineville has become rich through the war prices paid for grain and meat animals, and her citizens are glad to come to the aid of the Government.

"Prineville was said to be the first city visited by the liberty-bond auto touring committee where the people were found to be fully posted on the liberty loan on bond investment. While C. C. Chapman was speaking on a street corner Saturday afternoon, J. H. Templeton slipped into the First National Bank and subscribed for a $5000 bond."

RED CROSS SUPPORT OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

There are those who want to know why the Red Cross is so important to the nation in its war emergency that President Wilson issued a proclamation appealing for $100,000,000 fund and setting aside Red Cross Week in which to raise it.

At the front line trenches, stretcher bearers wearing the insignia of the Red Cross will be found carrying the wounded to the rear. Red Cross ambulances are carrying the wounded to Red Cross base hospitals where Red Cross physicians and nurses faithfully nurse the wounded soldiers back to health. In order that they may return to the world war for liberty, or be able to come back to those who wait for them at home.

The bandages used in Red Cross hospitals are made by devoted women, working for the Red Cross in many communities.

C. H. DEALY SELLS HIS SHEEP

(By Albert Schreder)

All the sheep owned by C. H. Dealy, a large rancher in the Bear Creek Buttes country, were purchased by the Fairview Stock Farm last week.

Three years ago Mr. Dealy purchased a thousand ewes from Al Jones for five thousand dollars.

Last year the Fairview Stock Farm purchased all of Mr. Dealy's wool and also all the original ewes which Mr. Dealy had purchased the year before.

This year they contracted for all the yearling and two-year-old wethers and all of Mr. Dealy's wool.

Last week all the sheep left were contracted for to be used for breeding purposes.

Out of the original $5,000 investment, Mr. Dealy has cleared over $13,000 during the last three years with his sheep.

This goes to show what can be done when a man selects the right stuff to start with, uses care and judgment in breeding, and takes care of his stock.

That sheep are the best possible investment even now can be seen when one stops to think that even though they may cost $15 per head this fall, one can get from 45 cents to 50 cents per pound for wool—each sheep shearing in the vicinity of eight pounds—and the lambs next year will sell at about $7 each.

Mr. Nichols, acting for the Fairview Stock Farm, also purchased six hundred wethers from Morrow & Keenan who are large stock ranchers in the Willow Creek country.

dieters incapacitated for former employment will be organized by the Red Cross. The mother who has given up her boy, her support, to the service of his country, will find her necessities cared for by the Red Cross and he can march away with no anxious thought as to her welfare.

The training of Red Cross nurses is under Red Cross direction. Thus all along the line the Universal Service of Mercy helps to lessen the horrors and rigors of war and to strengthen the nation. The United States cannot do its part without the Red Cross and the Red Cross is dependent on the contributions of those who want to help win the war but cannot serve at the front.

Anyone interested in assisting or becoming a member of the Navy League should call upon or telephone Mrs. Thos. Sharp for instructions. Ten ladies are sufficient to organize a league, and the purpose of the organizations is to knit various articles that are of great value to the men in the navy.

DEATH OF W. C. BARNES

William C. Barnes died at the home of his brother Frank Barnes in this city, yesterday about 1 o'clock. He had been in poor health for some time and death was not unexpected.

Mr. Barnes has been a resident of Prineville for many years, and was prominently identified with the pioneer history of this part of the state.

Funeral services will be held in this city at 3:30 o'clock today at the Frank Barnes residence.

BIRTHDAY DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Ollie M. Lewis and Mrs. H. C. Baughman celebrated the anniversary of their birth with an elaborate dinner party Sunday afternoon. After dinner was served many interesting stories were told about incidents which had happened during the twenty years of close friendship which these two ladies have enjoyed. Other things which made the afternoon pleasant were the number of musical selections which were rendered by Miss Dorothy Baughman, Miss Ethel Phelps and Mr. Baughman.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF PROMISED USERS OF BEAR CREEK ROAD

Commissioner Luthy Outlines Plan—County Court in Full Accord

(By Albert Schreder)

That relief is imperative for users of the Bear Creek road is known by the County Court and plans are being rushed so that the summer travel can get the benefit of it.

The Court is not antagonistic to road improvement in this section of the county, as many people believe, but desires to expend the money in the way that will do the most people the most good.

It is recognized by practically all that money expended on Juniper Canyon is money wasted. The only thing that could be done would be to build a new grade which would take far more money than the county could expend at this stage of the game.

Commissioner Ernest T. Luthy has been working on this problem and announces that a grade can be built up the old Dry Creek grade at a cost of approximately three hundred dollars which will eliminate the Juniper Canyon road and make an easy grade free from rocks.

The plan as outlined by Commissioner Luthy is to take the Juniper Canyon road to the sign board which directs one to the Dry Creek road.

The road then will follow this course to the top of the grade coming out near the Bundy place.

It will then follow due south along the section line, make the turn around the hill and follow east between the Gibson and Roberts place joining the present Bear Creek road at the turn near LaPard's.

The distance to town from LaPard's over the proposed road will be practically the same as at present over the old road.

Practically the entire distance up this grade can be run in a Ford car on high gear, as most of it is about a four per cent grade.

Before anything can be done on this road the notices must be posted for twenty days. This is being done now. The hearing is set for the next term of court which will be on Thursday, July 5.

About all that will be necessary then will be to run a grader over this road and pick out the rocks. This, Mr. Luthy estimates, will take about a week. The road will then be open for travel. The rocks are now being picked out of the road between the Mayfield ranch and the LaPard place.

Once this road is opened the present mail route can be changed and a Star Route can be given to all the patrons of Dry Creek along this

BIG DRIVE IS ON HERE FOR RED CROSS FUND

MEETINGS WILL BE HELD AT SCHOOL HOUSES NEXT WEEK

DATES, PLACES AND SPEAKERS

Crook County Must Do Her Bit In Raising the Immense Fund For the Red Cross

Just as the final echoes of the Liberty Loan campaign are dying away, people are being organized for a campaign that will reach every community in the county to secure members and raise funds for the Red Cross.

Our people are awakening to the fact that we are at war, that millions of American lives will be jeopardized in the trenches of Europe during the next few months, and that many of these may be saved by a liberal organization of the Red Cross society.

There are about 300,000 members of this organization in America today, and this should be increased to 10,000,000.

You are asked to enlist in the work of saving lives and this does not mean the lives of other nations but lives of Americans, Oregon boys, Crook County boys, perhaps members of your own family, at least members of the community in which you live.

Attend the meeting advertised below, and be prepared to do your bit. Subscriptions can be made and paid in four installments.

The meetings will be held as follows:

The speakers are donating their time and the use of their cars to the cause.

At present it serves but one or two patrons.

Earl Cross, a property owner along this line, and his neighbors are going to do everything possible to assist in this project.

C. C. Chapman, H. H. Cloutier and F. A. Freeman were in Prineville for a few hours Friday. They addressed a meeting on Main street in the afternoon, after having been present at the business men's luncheon at Hotel Prineville.

W. J. Schmidt and wife arrived yesterday by auto on their way to Klamath Falls and Medford. They will be in the city for a day or two.
