DRY LAW NOW EFFECTIVE

Reed Amendment Prohibiting Shipment of Liquor is in Force.

Washington.—Twenty-three states became "bone dry" at midnight Saturday, the hour at which the Reed amendment prohibiting the shipment of liquor into any territory where its manufacture or sale is prohibited becomes effective. These are the states wholly affected by the act:

- Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Washington and West Virginia.

Those partly affected are California, Connecticut, Delaware, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio and Texas.

The law bars from prohibition areas, whether states or smaller corporations, all mail matter containing advertisements or solicitations for orders of intoxicants, in order to suppress the activities of mail order houses.
