WISH to announce that under charter from the state of Oregon this bank will commence business on June 6, 1917 with banking headquarters located in the Livestock Exchange Building, Portland Union Stock Yards, North Portland, Oregon.

A general banking business will be transacted. The bank will be prepared especially to finance the livestock and other industries of North Portland and handle the accounts of banks in the livestock country of the Northwest.

The Need of Such an Institution Has Long Been felt by stockmen of the Northwest and with their co-operation we hope to materially assist in the development of the livestock industry in this territory.
