METHODIST CHURCH

The Lyon meetings are quite well attended from night to night and the people seem interested. We urge our citizens to attend these meetings and by our united efforts we can be of mutual help. Some of the leaders of the Epworth League met at the parsonage last Saturday evening and made some plans for their work. A short time was spent in eating popcorn and visiting. At an early hour they all departed realizing they had spent an enjoyable time. Our Sunday School is making growth both in size and efficiency. Come with us and we will do good together. Who is the lady that will devote herself to the interest of the zens and strangers to all of our Junior Department? The theme for Sunday morning service will be: "The Freedom of Truth." We shall be glad to meet both citi-
