It's Hard To Realize That Coffee Can Be So Good

In most of the coffees marketed now-a-days, a portion of the coffee value has been sacrificed for a show can. So when one chances to have a cup of Crescent Cream Coffee which has all the value in the coffee, the difference is so radical as to be immediately noticeable. For many, it is hard to believe that coffee can be as good as Crescent Cream. So, to all who are unacquainted with its goodness, we urge a trial. For in no other way can the true measure of its goodness be conveyed. 40c a pound.
