Quite a number in this vicinity

Those taking the examination at the Post school were Bernice McLean and John Welborn. Both of these pupils passed with high grades that are a credit to themselves and teacher. The rainfall in this vicinity during the past three weeks has been very heavy and has rendered the roads between here and Prineville almost impassable for cars, owing to a few very bad mud holes. We do not wish to blame or criticize any one for this condition of the roads, but after spending an hour wallowing through a mud hole through which many cars have had to be pulled with horses, we cannot help but wonder why such neglect, when a very little work would have prevented the mud hole. When a few miles further on the road we find a crew of men working on a piece of road that never was known to bother any one at any time of the year, we again wonder why the worst places do not get the work first.

TERREBONNE NEWS
(By our Regular Correspondent.)

The Fair View Stock Farm shipped six car loads of fine beef cattle to American Lake, Saturday, for our soldier boys. G. G. Groves and family left Friday for their new home in Milton. A. R. Badley, who purchased the G. G. Groves place some time ago, took possession last Saturday. All who attended the C. E. social at the L. P. C. Hall, Friday night report an enjoyable time. A number of Terrebonne young people attended the Red Cross benefit dance at Opal City last Friday night. Dorcas McMunn, a student at Terrebonne High, left Friday for Bend where her parents now reside and will finish the term there. Miss Lida Elliott, of Tacoma, Wn. is visiting with her sister, Mrs. W. ALFALFA ITEMS
(By our Regular Correspondent.)

Mrs. Curt Muller, of Bend, spent Sunday in Alfalfa. Curt Holloway and family and Albert Shultz and family were dinner guests at Leslie & Clarke's last Thursday evening. Bert Powell left on Thursday evening's train for Brownsville, in answer to a telegram that his mother, who has been ill for a long time, is very low. Will Spencer was a Prineville visitor the first of the week. Albert Perry, who was shaking hands with Alfalfa friends Saturday and Sunday, has gone to Vancouver to seek employment. Albert Shultz is again operating his wood saw in Alfalfa, although he has but little use of his right arm that was caught in the machine two months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ferguson, Mrs. Kate Colvin, Story Bushnell and Miss Edith Bushnell, of Bear Creek, were in Alfalfa Saturday. The Frank Ogle ranch as well as the store and postoffice have changed hands. The new proprietor will take possession March 1st. The Johnston Ranch Company is fencing the large tract of land that has been lying idle since the opening of the county road several years ago, a contract for 500 posts having been let to Larson & Tatti. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pyatt who have been visiting relatives in Alfalfa, returned to Redmond recently. Mrs. Beckman, of Powell Butte, spent several days in Alfalfa, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hardy. A large herd of cattle passed through Alfalfa, Tuesday, bound for the Powell Butte section. The Jolly Neighbors Club will meet with Mrs. Curt Holloway next Wednesday afternoon at which time work for the Red Cross will be considered. All members please attend.

BARNES ITEMS
(By our Regular Correspondent.)

Some rain and snow has fallen during the last week but the weather is the greatest ever known in this part of the country. Henry Pickett was on the creek last week. Chester Smith and Ed Birdsong are visiting at the home of C. C. Birdsong and wife this week. Mrs. J. R. Whittaker is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bennett, of Hampton Buttes. Harry Hackleman passed through here from Fort Rock where he had been helping take a bunch of cattle to hay that was bought in that section of the country last fall by Logan Brothers and R. R. Rhoda. Mr. Hackleman states that the grass is in fine shape, and the only drawback is the water. Chas. Birdsong and family are visiting at the home of Alex Ammons. Stanley Balfour had the misfortune to break his mail car and was taken to the Fife postoffice by Fisher Logan.

When building remember that you will probably occupy your home for a good many years, and surely you do not wish to install plumbing fixtures again in a few years. It does not cost any more for labor to install good plumbing fixtures than cheap ones and the difference in the first cost between the two is small.

PACIFIC Plumbing Fixtures are the highest quality lavatories, bath tubs, closets and sinks made. Their graceful designs, massive appearance and simple patterns make them the vogue.

Although PACIFIC Plumbing Fixtures are of superior quality, they cost no more than any other reputable brand, and are guaranteed forever against any defects in workmanship or materials.

Your architect will be glad to specify PACIFIC Plumbing Fixtures, and your plumber will be glad to install them, for they know PACIFIC Plumbing Fixtures will give years of satisfactory service.

— the pure oil from corn for better cooking

WHEN housewives first adopted Mazola they found the deep frying, sautéing and shortening medium which they have been seeking for years. Mazola browns food quickly, preventing any penetration of oil—and gives crisp, delicious dishes free from sogginess, easy to digest. The results are so much better than with lard or compounds that Mazola is used in thousands of American homes. And now when Food Administrator Hoover asks us to save butter, lard and suet, the housewife knows that she has a really good vegetable oil. With Mazola she can help save the country's resources and at the same time give her family the best of food at a notable saving in cost. Unlike other mediums Mazola does not transmit taste or odor from one food to another—can be used over and over again—a great factor in economy. And when you want an especially delicious salad dressing, use Mazola. There is no need to give up salads because of the uncertain supply or high prices of olive oil. Mazola can be had from your grocer in pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon tins. Ask him for the free Mazola Book of Recipes, or write us direct. Your money refunded if Mazola does not give entire satisfaction.
