MORE HOGS

When Bill Hanley said, at a banquet in this city less than a dozen years ago, that hogs would be worth $10.00 "a foot and a squealin' in a very few years" everyone considered the statement a good joke.

It has been proven that Mr. Hanley is a better livestock man than a politician, and the record of nineteen cents on foot in Chicago recently, and almost as much in the Portland market, for hogs on foot, is sufficient to cause anyone to consider the matter of raising some hogs, even if feed is very high.

In the January bulletin issued by the dairy and food commissioner of the state, J. D. Mickel, the situation is well summarized. Mr. Mickel says:

"You can feed pigs the scraps from the table, you can turn them onto the wheat stubble after the crop has been harvested. You can feed them dairy products that are left-overs; skim-milk, whey, sour milk, etc. You can feed them small potatoes, cull cabbage, corn 'nubbins,' cull or wormy fruit, etc., and they will thrive on it. What more do you want?

"See to it that there are a number of well-bred hogs on the place to consume this portion of the product throughout the year. It is a patriotic thing to do and it will pay you.

"Do not forget that the pig turns a larger portion of what he eats into meat than any other kind of stock, and they make their growth more rapidly. They increase something like 600 per cent annually as compared with 60 to 80 per cent in cattle, and about 100 per cent in sheep. And the high price of feed is no valid excuse for not raising them. There is plenty of evidence to prove that, all things considered, the chances are very much in favor of the hog as against any other stock.

"With a guarantee of $2.00 for wheat, thousands of farmers are going to turn largely to the growth of that crop. And this will certainly mean a reduction of other farm products, the pig included. Such a situation will insure a strong demand for pork at a fancy price.

"The European demand for fats at the present time is of the keenest sort and is sure to increase. So strongly do they feel the pinch that in the warring countries almost all the restrictions against hogs have been removed. And their growth is encouraged in back-yards and on spare lots even in the congested parts of the cities."

CUT THIS OUT!

Most laymen know little or nothing about the numbers of men in the different military divisions, or the number of men under each officer of a given title.

Clip this information out and keep it, you will need it for future reference.

An army corps is 60,000 men. An infantry division is 19,000 men. An infantry brigade is 7,000 men. A regiment of infantry is 3,000 men. A battalion is 1,000 men. A company is 250 men. A platoon is 60 men. A corporal's squad is 11 men. A field battery has 195 men. A firing squad is 20 men. A supply train has 283 men. A machine gun battalion has 296 men. An engineer's regiment has 1,098 men. An ambulance company has 66 men. A field hospital has 55 men. A medicine attachment has 13 men. A major general heads the field army and also each army corps. A brigadier general heads each infantry brigade. A colonel heads each regiment. A lieutenant colonel is next in rank below a colonel. A major heads a battalion. A captain heads a company. A lieutenant heads a platoon. A sergeant is next below a lieutenant. A corporal is a squad officer.

Final Game of Central Oregon Basketball League Played at Bend

Score 53 to 19. Not very much can be said concerning the basketball game in Bend, Thursday night. C. C. H. S. fans are inclined to believe that their team was not "there" at all.

PRINEVILLE MAN ILL

Victor Sundquist Seriously Ill With Measles at Vancouver Barracks

C. J. Sundquist returned Saturday morning from Vancouver, Washington, where he was called because of the serious illness of his son Victor, who has been stationed there since enlisting the first of the year.

He was much better when his father came home.

SOME CHICKEN

A movement is on foot to form a poultry association in Bend. It certainly should succeed, as the city is full of "crowing roosters."—Jefferson County Record.

"State Units Now Training Within Sound of Enemy Guns"

A cablegram from France, publication of which was recently authorized, contains the following information:

Part of the National Guard has arrived in France and is undergoing intensive training behind first line trenches within the sound of the guns at the front.

This Brings the War Home to YOU

In a short time these gallant young men, whose parents, brothers and sisters, wives and sweethearts are your own neighbors, will be IN the front line trenches, under the murderous fire of enemy artillery, and going "over the top" to meet the sweeping hail of the machine guns and the bayonets of the Huns.

If these soldier boys—YOUR soldier boys—were three miles away instead of three thousand, you would bend every energy, exhaust every resource, make every sacrifice, to make sure that they were fed, clothed, armed and equipped as no soldiers ever were before.

Is your duty any less imperative, any less sacred, because it is your neighbor's boy who is defending your country, your flag and your home from German frightfulness on the other side of the ocean?

Is it not a splendid privilege as well as a duty to deny yourself luxuries, to save food, save clothing, above all to save money, for our soldiers?

U. S. Thrift Stamps Save Lives and Shorten the War

There is one thing you can do, every day, to help the Government provide the guns, ammunition, food, clothing and other supplies which our soldiers and sailors MUST HAVE to win the war, win it quickly, and come safely home again.

Go today to any bank, any postoffice, or any store where you see the W. S. S. (War Savings Stamps) sign displayed.

For 25 cents you will receive a U. S. Thrift Stamp and a card to paste it on. The card has spaces for 16 stamps, costing you $4. When it is full, exchange it—with a few cents additional in cash—for a War Savings Stamp, for which the Government will pay $5 January 1, 1923.

These War Savings Stamps are as safe as U. S. Bonds. They are the safest investment in the world because they are backed by the entire resources of the country, and the profit you make on them amounts to four per cent interest, compounded quarterly, if held till January 1, 1923.

Buy a U. S. Thrift Stamp with every quarter you can possibly save. Every stamp helps to stamp out autocracy. Every stamp saves priceless American blood. Every stamp is a blow for Liberty. Every stamp will help bring peace to the world—a permanent peace, grounded in justice and righteousness.
