SUMMONS IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR CROOK COUNTY

Central Oregon Irrigation Company, a corporation, Plaintiff.

Albert E. Meyer, Defendant. To Albert E. Meyer, the above named defendant.—GREETINGS:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON

You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed in the above entitled cause of suit against you on or before April 24th, 1918, and if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above named Court for a decree as prayed for in the complaint filed herein, namely: that you surrender one certain contract in said complaint described, made and entered into on the 19th day of July, 1911 with the plaintiff herein, and that said contract be cancelled, forfeited and declared void, and that you and all persons claim by, through or under you be forever debarred and enjoined from asserting any claim or right whatever under said contract, to the land described therein or the water appurtenant thereto, and that the plaintiff have its costs and disbursements and such other and further relief as to this Court may seem meet and equitable in the premises.

This Summons is published pursuant to an order made so to do by the Judge of the above named Court, made and entered on the 11th day of March, 1918.

MAX A. CUNNING, Of Attorneys for Plaintiff, Residing at Redmond, Oregon.

Arnold Jenert, a Frenchman who was employed in the logging camp of the Oregon Lumber Company, near Batesville, was killed by being struck by a logging train. An agreement has been closed with A. J.
