

THE CITY

D. H. Peoples was over from Bend, Friday.
 T. E. Driscoll was over from Redmond, Saturday.
 C. A. Stevenson, of Held, was in the city Monday.
 S. N. Morris has returned to his home near Suplee.
 Austin Kizer was in the city Friday from Roberts.
 Seth Dixon is in the city this week from Barnes.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mason were in the city Monday.
 Herbert Angell is in the city this week from Paulina.
 Guy Cresson was in the city Saturday from Summit.
 B. B. Balfour was in the city Monday from Barnes.
 D. B. Stewart was in the city Monday from Barnes.
 E. T. Slayton is a business visitor in Portland this week.
 Harold Maker was in the city Tuesday from Roberts.
 G. W. Wells was in the city Saturday from Powell Butte.
 Mr. and Mrs. Rippey returned Saturday from Portland.
 S. G. Doughtit was a business visitor in the city Friday.
 Henry Hanson, of Powell Butte, was in the city Tuesday.
 Clyde McKay was a visitor in the city Tuesday, from Bend.
 Mrs. Annie Senecal was in Prineville, Friday from Suplee.
 Ralph H. Schneeloch was a business visitor in the city last week-end.

W. B. Bell is in Prineville visiting his mother, Mrs. M. H. Bell.
 B. L. Kidwell and family arrived in the city Friday from Portland.
 Chas. L. Hunter and wife were in the city Monday from Gateway.
 Fred F. McCrea, of Post, was a business visitor in Prineville, Friday.
 A. Whisnant, editor of the Bend Press, was a Prineville visitor Monday.
 L. L. Lyons was a visitor in Prineville last week-end from Mitchell.
 C. C. Beckley and John Aldrich were in the city Friday from Hay Creek.
 J. F. Blanchard was a business visitor in Prineville, Monday from Culver.
 Omer Claypool returned Monday morning from a business trip to The Dalles.
 Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Mustard were in the city last week-end from Powell Butte.
 V. H. Reiniking returned Tuesday from a business trip to Port Angeles, Washington.
 H. J. Overturf, of Bend, was attending court in Prineville, Monday and Tuesday.
 Mrs. H. W. Carlin and daughter, Mrs. Noll, were in the city Saturday from Roberts.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Grier returned Thursday morning from a short business trip to Portland.
 Mrs. Daw, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Belknap, returned to Terrebonne, Thursday.
 Mrs. G. N. Clifton entertained the Bridge Club, Monday afternoon.
 Mrs. R. W. Rea received the high score.

Fred Merritt is in Prineville today from Meadow.
 St. Donnelly is in the city today from Suplee.
 Fred F. McCrea is in the city today from Post.
 Miss Marie Austin spent last week-end in Bend.
 W. S. Ayers and Rev. F. C. Lalette are in Bend today.
 Lee Thomas was a business visitor in Prineville, Monday, from Bend.
 Misses Pearl Russell and Gertrude Dunnington were week-end visitors at Bend.
 Ross Farnham, a prominent attorney of Bend, was in Prineville, Tuesday.
 R. W. Wallace is visiting at the home of his brother, Judge N. G. Wallace.
 Felix O'Neil, of Hiawatha, Kansas, is in Prineville visiting his son Charles O'Neil.
 Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lafollette left last night for Portland and will be gone several days.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Peoples and daughter Arline were in the city yesterday from Bend.
 R. P. Richardson and F. C. Westorf were in the city Monday in the interest of the Bend Bulletin contest.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smelzer will leave Saturday for Portland where Mrs. Smelzer will receive medical treatment.
 Mrs. W. J. Hughes entertained the Monday Night Bridge Club this week. Mrs. Blomgren received the high score.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Ray returned last Thursday from Albany and Portland where they have been for several months.

HORSE SALE APRIL 5

Army Officers Will Be In Prineville For Horses and Mules

Do not forget the horse sale that will be held in this city on April 6. Army officers will be here on that day, to buy horses and mules for army use.
 The call this time is for cavalry horses weighing from 1000 lbs. to 1200 lbs., standing 15 hands high and being sound—no mares accepted; and for artillery mules, or wheel mules, which will stand 16 1/2 hands high or over and weigh upward of 1200 lbs. The price is $140 per head for cavalry horses and $215 per head for mules.

GASOLINE STOVE EXPLODES

The fire department was called out last evening about 6:30 to extinguish a fire caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove at the home of Mrs. S. J. Newsom. The fire was out before the department arrived and caused very slight damage.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Plant trees and thus help to beautify the town and then for a change and rest come to church on Sunday, March 24. Bible School at 10, classes for all ages. Preaching at 11, subject of interest to all. Young People's meeting at 6:30. Evening song at 7:30 followed by sermon, subject: "The Question of the Ages," or "What Think Ye of Christ?" Visitors and new comers especially invited.

The Journal $1.50 per year

Field and Garden Seeds

We sell only the highest grade seeds obtainable! Alfalfa seed per lb. 23c!

Plant a War Garden!

Help Uncle Sam and also yourself. Lilly and Ferry Seeds in packages. Lilly seeds in bulk!

J. E. Stewart & Company

LYRIC

Geo. M. Cohan Seven Keys to Baldpate (Artcraft Pictures)

GEO. M. COHAN

In Seven Keys to Baldpate

Friday and Saturday; 10c, 25c

First show 7:30; Second Show 9:00

The Auto Evangelization Society of the Baptist Church will conduct gospel services at the Irrigation Dam next Sunday at 2:30.

The C. E. Society will give a War Service program Sunday evening at 6:30 at the Christian Church. All young people are welcome.

J. C. Sharp, of Grants Pass, arrived in the city yesterday and will be employed in the drafting room of the Ochoco Irrigation office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Karn, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Draper, left Friday for their home at Silver Lake.

A. E. Hall, E. F. Rushfelt and Leslie Manning are in the city, having just recently arrived from Nebraska. They are looking for a location.

Mr. and Mrs. George Millican returned Friday morning from Portland where they spent the winter. Mr. Millican was called here as a witness in court.

Mrs. Norris Morgan, her son Harry Farnsworth, and Loyd Cantrell went to Bend, Saturday. Both boys passed the physical examination and returned to Prineville to await the call.

Dr. George W. Morrow, the great speaker of the Anti-Saloon League will be in Prineville, April 7. He speaks on war time prohibition and has immense audiences in Portland and other places.

Bishop Paddock was here last night for confirmation, and was assisted by Dr. Van Waters. They both left on the morning stage. Bishop Paddock is going to France very soon.

W. D. McCormack, a well known Central Oregon sheepman, and special representative for R. N. Stanfield in this part of the state, broke his arm at Tumalo, Tuesday, while cranking his car and was unable to continue the trip to Prineville with the rest of the party.

COMING TO THE LYRIC

George M. Cohan's recipe for a happy entertainment as presented in his new Artcraft picture, "Seven Keys to Baldpate" at the Lyric theatre, is an ideal prescription for the most morbid grouch. In his new film tonic, George M. has mixed with exact proportions, mystery, thrills, and laughter, with a sweetening dash of love as a tribute to Cupid, all of which will work the desired result upon men, women and children alike.

When writing advertisers, please mention The Journal.

DR. TURNER

eye specialist, of Portland, will be at Hotel Prineville again Saturday and Sunday, March 23-24. Consult him. Don't forget the date.

DANCE!

Club Hall, March 28

Bowkers

Orchestra, of Portland

Let's Go!

Tickets $1.00

THE ELITE MILLINERY

Easter Sale!

We offer an excellent line of Spring Millinery, including all the latest Styles and Designs!

New styles are forwarded promptly to us as they are designed in the largest Eastern houses. Each hat has its individual characteristics. We have one here for you. The little Watteau hat is one of the latest creations, very much in vogue just at this time. We have them in a wide variety.

OLLIA M. LEWIS, Proprietress

Easter March 31 this year! Shop Early!

