TODAY'S SERVICES

Every true American should pause today, and in his humblest way, observe the patriotic services that will be held for the heroes of other days, in the farmer wars.

The freedom we now enjoy, the country we love and the flag we honor, were made possible by the sacrifice of many lives, and this applies many times magnified, in the conflict we are now waging.

While the establishment of our government was made possible by what was at that time a heavy sacrifice of life, its maintenance at this time will cost much more, and while no one doubts of the ultimate success of our armies and our navy, the appalling loss of life is not to be considered lightly, and on this day of days, the nation should and will observe fitting services.

The children should be at the services too, that they may understand and remember in years to come, something of the spirit that makes our America possible.

SING!

How many men, as they come down the street without preparation, can sing more than one verse of America?

Not all by any means, we are sorry to say.

Get a copy of this grand song, and of the Star Spangled Banner, and on every occasion where they are used, assist in the singing, and let the world know that you are an American and are glad of it.

PROBATION CASE POSTPONED

The juvenile case which was held before Judge Wallace, Monday, was continued until next Monday. The case concerned William Grant who has been staying at the home of Thurman Moffitt at Powell Butte. The boy is twelve years old and has been incorrigible for some time.

A FEW REASONS WHY PRINEVILLE'S FUTURE GREATNESS IS ASSURED

NO OTHER TOWN IN THE WEST HAS THE GREAT NUMBER OF STRONG DIVERSIFIED RESOURCES THAT PRINEVILLE POSSESSES. STEADY AND CONTINUOUS GROWTH HAS BEEN AND WILL BE OUR RECORD

PRINEVILLE is the only city in interior Oregon that has free mail delivery service.

PRINEVILLE is situated in an artesian basin, and many flowing wells are located in or near the city. Average depth is 200 feet.

PRINEVILLE has more and better cement sidewalks than all other central Oregon towns combined.

PRINEVILLE is surrounded by one of the best irrigation districts in the west. Most compact, less percentage of waste land.

PRINEVILLE has constructed its own railroad from bonds issued as a municipality, bonds voted twice with but one vote against.

PRINEVILLE is the home of the Oregon Inter-State Fair, the largest fat stock show in the state, outside of the North Portland show.

PRINEVILLE has the best educational facilities in this part of the state. Best high school outside of Portland.

PRINEVILLE has a $125,000 stone court house, one of the best county buildings in Oregon, barring none.

PRINEVILLE feedyards furnished 46 per cent of all fat cattle sold at North Portland yards in the season 1916-17.

PRINEVILLE has, immediately surrounding, more and better live-stock producing and fattening territory than any other city or town in Oregon.

PRINEVILLE has more irrigated land in a ten-mile radius than any other interior Oregon town.

PRINEVILLE has one of the largest yellow pine belts in the west, awaiting early development by capitalists.

PRINEVILLE has one of the best mining districts, but 20 miles distant, that is awaiting development, in the west today.

PRINEVILLE has a spotless record in all war activities, from the day the volunteers were called to the present, always first.

PRINEVILLE has the best facilities for motorist travel to be found in this part of the state. Is a mecca for tourists.

PRINEVILLE is destined to be one of the best towns in the state, as it has always been. The late James J. Hill said, "The country makes the town." That is one of the reasons why there has never been any question about Prineville.

A Different Man

W. E. Mead, who was recently arrested in Seattle, Wash., on the Espionage Act, was not the W. E. Mead who owns a ranch at Roberts as friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mead have recently received letters from them at Kansas City and other eastern cities.

THANKS TO MR. PANCAKE

"The Cedars", the young ladies class of the Presbyterian Sunday school wish to thank Mr. Pancake for donating part of the proceeds from the play "Les Miserables" which was given at the Lyric theatre last week. The sum of $11.50 was turned over to the class.
