"THE LITTLE AMERICAN"

Mary Pickford Plays Leading Role in Patriotic Film Drama

A vivid idea of the true cause for patriotism on the part of every American in connection with the great world war can be had from the new Mary Pickford-Artcraft picture, "The Little American", to appear at the Lyric Theatre, Friday and Saturday. In producing this subject Cecil B. De Mille, the genius of screencraft, based his play on actual facts and carefully avoided exaggeration so often prominent in films of this nature. Every detail was staged only after it had received the endorsement of an authority and various experts on matters pertaining to the great war, were called in to collaborate in the presentation of different scenes. As a result the picture has been named as the most faithful reproduction of true conditions, by many who are in a position to judge. See this patriotic 6-reel film drama at the Lyric Friday and Saturday.
