The Woman God Forgot

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY at the Lyric Theater

CONSTANCE TALMADGE is Betsy, a little maid-of-all-work in a boarding house of the "quick and dirty" variety. However, she has an imagination and she dreams of silks and satins; of knights and ladies. There are two men who come into her life—one is a grocer's boy with a leaning toward Sherlock Holmes and the other just a boarder with a story of a lost inheritance. And these three unearth a thrilling mystery that leads to all sorts of hair-raising situations until they find "Betsy's Burglar" And Betsy is not a "slavey" at all! You'll be held with gasping suspense from beginning to end.
