

Overstocked!

We have some lines of merchandise that we are overstocked on that we offer to the public for less than wholesale.

Mens Irrigation Boots, was $5.00 now go at, per pair . . . . . $3.85

Mens Caps at one-third off.

Mens Cloth Hats one-third off.

All Collars, 2 for 25 cents.

Any Mans Oxford, sizes 5 1-2 to 7 1-2, to go at . . . . . $2.50

Canvas Gloves, 10 cents.

Special lot of Mens Dress Shirts at one half regular price.

Ladies Hats at wholesale prices.

Ladies Oxfords, a special lot, sizes 2 1-2 to 6, per pair . . . . . $1.85

JORDAN & HYDE

TO THE TRADE---

WE HAVE purchased the Hardware and Farm Machinery stock of the O. C. Claypool Co., and are now doubly prepared to care for your wants. Our stock of Farm Machinery Parts is complete, and the prices are reasonable. If you come to us for an article in the hardware line which we do not have in stock, we will take pleasure in sending in for it. Our chief desire is to conduct our business for the convenience and saving of our customers. Come in and get acquainted with us and our methods.

LAKIN HARDWARE

"Where it pays to trade"

OCHOCO MINE SOLD TO EASTERN CAPITALISTS

CROP CONDITIONS EXCELLENT IN COUNTRY DISTRICTS

SHEEP SHEARING SEASON IS ON

Sunday School at Suplee—Red Cross Dance At Fife—Stock Goes Onto Reserve

HAMPTON BUTTE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sherman and Mrs. C. Seeds made a business trip to Prineville last week. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hall and children and S. L. New visited at Robert Jordan's near Culver last week. Miss Katherine Christian, of Prineville, is spending the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Hall. F. D. Scammon made a business trip to Prineville recently. Sam New has gone to Grandview to work. Calvin Sherman is working at Rabbit Valley. Chas. Lampert and Paul Werner are in Prineville this week.

ROBERTS ITEMS

The Red Cross dance given here last Saturday night was a decided success. A large number of people were present from all over the county. A neat sum of $125 was realized. Isom Millorn spent a few days the first of the week visiting at Dick Mulholland's. Rev. W. L. Van Nuys held preaching services at Roberts last Sunday. There was a good attendance considering that it was the first time. Ruth Mulholland has spent the last four days visiting at the J. E. Roberts home. Sidney Rogers, John Millorn and Louis Fischer passed through Roberts enroute to Prineville this week. Mr. Heckley had the misfortune to have his team run away last Monday. The horses ran but a short distance before they were caught. No damage was done.

BARNES' ITEMS

C. A. Sherman and Mrs. Claud Seeds passed through Barnes enroute for Prineville recently. Frank Long, who has been employed on the K. D. Houston ranch, was a passenger on the stage Monday. B. G. Demaris and Abe Hackleman are plowing this week. Mr. Smith and wife are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Logan this week. Mr. Smith is a brother of Mrs. Logan. Samuel Logan, who has been at Paulina all winter, is again on the creek. Uncle Alex Busbie was a visitor at Harry Barnes' last week. Chas. Pausch was a visitor at Barnes recently after a long stay in Prineville. T. T. Armstrong is again plowing at the 96 ranch. Dick Rhoda was on the creek last week and reported that preparations are already being made for the celebration that is going to be given at that place in honor of the Red Cross.

FIFE ITEMS

Surveyor Kelly was in our neighborhood one day last week re-establishing some lines. Mrs. Charley Sherman and Mrs. Claude Seeds went to Prineville last Tuesday to gain information concerning the new work which is to be taken up by the Riverdale Red Cross society next Wednesday. Mrs. Jim Toney spent Sunday at the Dean Huston home. The stockmen of this vicinity are busy gathering their cattle to put in the reserve. Everyone reports the Silver Creek Red Cross dance last Saturday night a great success. The proceeds from the sales amounted to $114.53. Mr. Crane, the horse buyer from Burns, purchased several head of mules from the Stuart Cattle Co. while here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hall visited at George Huettl's on Sunday. Mrs. John McEachern has been sick for a few days. Floyd Baker, of Burns, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Balfour at the lower G. I. ranch the first of the week. Mrs. Ed Street spent Monday afternoon at Fife. Little Caroline Lambert has the measles. Lloyd Laughlin, oldest son of Ed Laughlin, had the misfortune to fall and break his arm while irrigating. The bank giving way under him was the cause of the accident. He was taken to Burns, Wednesday, for treatment.

SUPLEE ITEMS

Miss Grace Van Winkle left Wednesday for Greeley, Colorado, where she expects to attend college this summer. She was accompanied to Isee by S. A. Lytle and daughters, Lodema and Edna. Sheep shearing has now begun in full blast. Mrs. I. M. Mills and son Ogden and daughter Violet were visiting at the home of Mrs. Daisy Laughlin. Chas. Bowlsby, Martin Ditmar and E. E. Clark went to the Post neighborhood Monday to begin shearing sheep for L. B. Meyer. W. N. Dunkle has gone to Rabbit Valley to shear sheep. Ruth Morris, of Bond, is visiting at the home of her brother, S. N. Morris for a few weeks. Gussie DeLore came in from his mines last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Kuhn and Mrs. A. L. DeLore went to Portland last week on business. Chas. Bernard, of The Dalles, was visiting his Suplee ranches last week. C. O. Garner, J. L. Smith and M. J. Senecal recently bought a fine Mammoth Jack. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carey, of Isee was visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Herb Angell, last week end. O. H. Olson recently visited the Deer Creek chrome mines and located a claim. Suplee community organized a Sunday school last Monday evening, and will meet every Sunday at 2 p. m. at the school house. Wednesday of each week is Suplee Red Cross sewing day.

HOWARD ITEMS

The weather for the past week has been warm and the crops are beginning to look much better. The roads are fine here with the exception of the culverts being in bad condition on account of the heavy trucks with ore from the gold mines going over them. The Ochoco gold mines have been sold for $50,000 to an Eastern man, who expects to sink a shaft 1000 feet and also build a saw mill to furnish lumber for their own use. Mr. and Mrs. Magers and Oral Sears returned from their trip to Spokane and other cities. A good time is reported by all. Mr. and Mrs. Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. Blevins went to the Prairie Sunday on a fishing trip. A number of people from Prineville motored to Marks Creek Sunday on a fishing trip. Mrs. Cleo Parrish is visiting relatives on the Ochoco this week. Mrs. Cook was a business visitor in Prineville yesterday. Miss Wilma Roberts spent Sunday with Nettie Scott. Mrs. T. Fitzgerald and boys returned home after spending a week visiting and fishing on the Ochoco. Miss Elizabeth Scott visited Miss Lucile Donnelly last week. The telephone work is nearly completed. If everything goes like they expect, it will be finished a week from Saturday. The eclipse caused quite an excitement for this neighborhood. Everybody was out with smoked glass watching it. Mr. and Mrs. Blevins, Dona Hawthorne and Mabel Cook visited the Scotts, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were visitors at the Lafollette place Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Prose have been visitors at the Lafollette farm the past week. They have returned to their home in Prineville. James sawmill is running in fine shape now working two shifts. Miss Mabel Cook and brother expect to leave Thursday for their home near Portland. He expects to go to war when he gets there. Andrew Hall has returned home after spending several weeks in Seattle. Miss Mabel Cook and brother spent Sunday at Sulphur Springs.

POST ITEMS

C. L. Ream and Arch autored to Prineville on Wednesday of last week. Myron Polk has gone to Prineville to work in the Inland Garage. C. H. Cook and mother and E. G. Allen went to Prineville, Saturday. Mrs. W. W. Raymond and daughter Marguerite, of Walla Walla, arrived at the Bonnyview ranch Sunday, where they will spend the summer. Miss Grace Wilson spent the first of the week in this neighborhood and visited Mrs. Stover and Mrs. Brummer at the O. C. Gray ranch. Arch Gibson brought out a load of household goods from Prineville the first of the week. Mrs. Taylor is spending the week in Prineville while Mr. Taylor and John Price are fishing in the Deschutes. Mrs. Polk and family and Marion Gittings spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Demaris. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Post, Mrs. Winters, Miss Bernice McLean, Mrs. Koopman and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Post, Sunday. There will be a picnic dinner at the E. B. Knox ranch next Sunday at 1 o'clock and preaching by Rev. Van Nuys at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raymond, Mrs. W. W. Raymond, Miss Marguerite Raymond, Jack McMillan and Miss Addie Miller ate ice cream at C. O. Stover's, Sunday evening. Messrs. W. D. Knox, Wm. Snoderly, Jack McMillan and Miss Addie Miller spent Sunday with Miss Ethel Miller at the homestead. S. J. Newsom went to Prineville, Wednesday and brought out a hog which he bought of Lynn Nichols.

DEATH OF RICHARD PHILLIBER

Richard Philliber, aged 84, a native of Missouri and an active miner and prospector for many years in the west, and well known in Wallace, Idaho, died in this city Sunday. He is survived by a son, Clyde Philliber, of the Ladd & Titton bank, and a daughter, Mrs. Ethel Cola, of Wallace. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Erickson Undertaking company.—Portland Journal, June 10.

DEATH OF MRS. SMITH

Mrs. Katherine Smith, a native of Massachusetts who had resided in Oregon, California and Washington since 1855, died Sunday at her home, 841 Lovejoy street, at the age of 83 years. Mrs. Smith was an active worker in the Woman's Relief Corps, and was a member of the Lincoln-Garfield W. R. C. Since the death of her husband, Hubert Smith, of Tacoma, last December, Mrs. Smith had resided most of the time in Seattle. Mrs. Smith saw much of pioneer life of the west, when, with her first husband, Abner Robbins, she resided in Crook county on a cattle ranch from 1870 to 1890. Harold S. Gilbert, no immediate relatives survive. Her only daughter, Mrs. Eunice Luckey, died last year. Funeral services will be held from the Holman chapel Wednesday at 10 a. m., and burial will be in River-view cemetery.—Portland Journal, June 10.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday, June 16. It is worth while to attend church. Sunday school at 10. Your children will be well instructed. Young People's meeting at 7, led by Miss Nora Putnam. Topic: "Cooperation With the Sunday School." Evening song and sermon at 8. Monday evening Bible study at 8. Wednesday evening meditation. Glad to see new faces. Come often.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The interest in the Sunday school seems to grow the last few Sundays. The Misses Sidford make valuable reinforcement at this time. They are more than welcome. The theme for Sunday morning will be: "The Man Who Adjourned the Meeting." The subject for the evening service will be announced later. All are welcome with us in our worship. Try us and learn our social qualities. T. H. Fertig, pastor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Preaching morning and evening during the summer months at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Bible school at 10 a. m. Special music and patriotic solos will be regular features of the evening services. The solos will be sung at various times: "Should the Stars In Your Service Flag Turn to Gold," "Gold," "The Colors That Will Not Run," "I'll Carry Mother's Bible Next My Heart," "Back to Mother's God," "The Same Old Flag" etc. These songs are being sung with effect at the Billy Sunday tabernacle meetings all over the country. Our services are dedicated to Christ and Country, come and worship with us.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

By a vote of the congregation all the work of this church in Prineville will be centered in the morning services during the summer. Bible school at 10. Morning worship commences promptly at 11 and closes at 12:10. Afternoon services at Post following a basket dinner at the home of E. B. Knox. Evening service at Paulina under the auspices of the Paulina Branch of the Red Cross. Supper will be served at six o'clock. Prineville and Post are especially invited to this service. Service at Suplee, Monday evening.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our kind friends and neighbors for their sympathy and aid during our recent bereavement. MRS. GEO. H. STONE AND FAMILY.

For Dainty Desserts

---there is no other flavor that makes them as delightful and refreshing