BRITISH CONTINUE STEADY ADVANCE

Germans Fight Desperately, But Appear Confused as English Smash On.

With the British Army in France.—Field Marshal Haig's fighting armies have achieved further victories. They delivered blow after blow to the staggering enemy, who, in some places, seemed to be in a state of great confusion.

Thiepval itself, a mighty position atop a high hill, from which the surrounding country for miles is under observation, has been occupied, and the British line has been straightened between Grandcourt and La Boisselle.

Moving swiftly in some places and crushing stubborn opposition in others the British are advancing along the whole extent of their new Somme line—from the region of Arras to southward of the river from which it takes its name.

Some of the heaviest fighting of the war is going on around the Bapaume section of the battle front, for the Germans are loath to part with the town, which has great strategic value.

The Germans exhibit signs of cracking at some places but are offering desperate resistance. Many more guns, some of large calibre, have been taken. One British corps alone has counted 80 guns.

There is evidence of confusion in the enemy rear. Units of the same divisions hurled into the battle have been taken at points separated by many miles. Quantities of material are falling into British hands because the Boche has not troubled to apply the torch or explosives.

FRENCH PREPARE TO CROSS OISE

Paris.—While French artillery is smashing up the new German defensive positions preparatory to a crossing of the Oise, east of Noyon, General Mangin is pushing on methodically to Coucy Le Chateau, in the face of fierce resistance.

The Germans have fortified the north bank of the Oise from Noyon at Chauny. At some points the enemy is counter attacking.

The first phase of the battle of the Aisne and Oise has put the French in possession of the entire south bank of the Oise west of the Ailette end of the Ailette river from the Oise to Post St. Mar.

The Germans are thrown back upon the hilly forest region of Coucy for communication between their troops operating on the Oise above the Ailette and their troops on the Aisne east of Soissons.

General Mangin has won a substantial victory, of which there is plenty of material evidence besides 13,000 prisoners and 300 captured guns.

BRITISH AHEAD IN THE AIR

Gain Superiority on Battle Front and Raid Rhine Provinces Often.

London.—British air fighting on the western front during the last week provides a striking indication of the difficulty now confronting Germany in the air.

In the battle area enemy scouts are compelled to operate in large formations at a much greater height than formerly.

Severe air fighting has occurred between Albert and the Amiens-Roye road, resulting, according to latest reports, in the destruction of 62 enemy machines and the driving down of 21 airplanes out of control. Twenty-six British machines have been reported missing.

Coupled with a virtual cessation of raids on London the increasing number of bombing raids into Germany, of which there were 21 during the past week, must be demoralizing, showing Germany that she is unable adequately to protect her air frontier.

Lusitania Owners Held Not Liable.
New York.—The Cunard Steamship company cannot be held liable for loss of life and property in the torpedoing of the Lusitania by a German submarine, according to a decision handed down in the admiralty branch of the United States district court.

Russia Faces Starvation, Says Hoover.
Washington.—Acute starvation will rage in several areas of Russia during the winter, due to a failure of the Ukrainian wheat crop, according to Food Administrator Hoover, who has returned to Washington from Europe.

Germans Fortifying 90 Miles Back.
Amsterdam.—The Germans are fortifying a line between Dinant, Belgium, and Divuet, just across the border in France, according to a report received here. Divuet is 90 miles directly east of Bapaume.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY AT THE LYRIC THEATER

"Back of the Man" is a woman, the kind of woman we admire and love and fight for. She is determined that the green country boy shall make good—and he does. But as power comes to the boy there are forces that entangle him and compromise him. Insidiously they work, faster and faster, until he finds himself on trial for his life—and then—who is the woman, makes a great sacrifice which turns out all right after all. A play that will keep you on the edge of your seats throughout.

SUNDAY AT THE LYRIC

What is a Branch House?

The Branch House is the place in the packing organization where what the packing plant does for you is put where you can use it.

Both are the natural result of growth and development in the living thing they belong to.

Swift & Company Branch Houses are located in distributing centers all over the country. They are fitted out with refrigerating equipment to keep meat cool, sweet and fresh.

Each one is in personal charge of a man who believes in what Swift & Company is doing for people and wants to help do it.

They are directed by men who have spent years learning how to get better meat cheaper to the places where it is needed.

Meat is shipped to the branch houses direct from the packing plants in Swift & Company's refrigerator cars, in such quantities that it can be disposed of while fresh and sweet.

Your meat dealer comes here to buy your meat for you—unless someone else can treat him better than we can.

So you need the branch house in order to live well; and the branch house and the packing plant need each other, in order to be useful to you.

ABSENTEE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR REGISTRATION

Washington, Sept. 3.—(I. N. S.)—The obligation rests upon every man required to register under the new man-power law, who expects to be absent from the jurisdiction of his local draft board on registration day, and upon him alone, to see that his registration card, properly made out, is in the hands of his board on or before registration day.

This was made plain by Provost Marshal General Crowder in a statement issued today. It points out that an absentee should go to a local board in the city in which he expects to be on registration day and have his registration card filled and certified. This card, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, should be mailed to the local board having jurisdiction over the permanent place of residence of the absentee, and the registration certificate will be forwarded.

"Failure to get this certificate may cause serious inconvenience," General Crowder points out. He also emphasized that absentees must act in time to get their registration cards to their own boards on or before Thursday, September 12, the day set for registration.
