Douglas Fairbanks In "Headin' South"

Doug takes to "Greased" like a duck takes to water. They just make a healthy breakfast for the man that—but you don't have to be told that he's good. You know it; that's why you're going to pack up now and see this picture.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY AT THE LYRIC THEATER

Bessie Love And Frank Borzage In "Wee Lady Betty"

Catching a greased pig has long been recognized as a difficult achievement, but the property men who dressed the sets for the new Triangle drama, "Wee Lady Betty," starring Bessie Love, under the direction of Charles Miller, discovered something even more slippery than a greased pig.

You Know you are going to buy Liberty Bonds. You wouldn't be square with yourself if you didn't. You couldn't take off your hat to the flag with half the sense of ownership if you didn't. You couldn't cheer the marching line of troops with half the thrill if you didn't. You couldn't watch the Jackies go by with half the pride if you didn't. You couldn't glimpse a battleship off the coast with half the joy if you didn't. You couldn't read the war news with half the eager faith if you didn't. You couldn't be 100 per cent. American if you didn't.

You know the Fourth Liberty Loan starts September 28th. You know that buying a Liberty Bond isn't making a gift. You know that you are lending your money to your Government—to the best friend you and your mother and wife and sister and daughter have. You know what security is back of your loan—security that means good interest and that your money will be paid back to you. You know all of that—you know the business side as well as the patriotic side of it.

Then, buy your Liberty Bonds the very first day of the Loan. Don't wait. Do your thinking beforehand. You needn't consider it; you don't have to be argued into it—you know you will buy Liberty Bonds. Be one of the first to get the badge of honor—the Liberty Bond Button. Get yours on the first day—September 28th. You know what an example that will set.

Make September 28th Your Liberty Bond Day. Could You Do a Better Thing Right Now?
