"CLOWN QUINCE" WRITES TO HIS PAPA, THE KAISER

The following was taken from a newspaper published in France and sent to Nevada relatives by a Nevada doughboy, who is now fighting in France:

"On the run, Somewhere in France, at the time.

"Dear Papa: I am writing on der run as der prave und glorious soldiers under my command have not seen der Rhine for so lond dot they have started back that way, and of course I am going mit dem. Oh, papa, dere has been some ofel tings hapened in France. First, I started in my big offensive, which was to crush der fool Americans, but they know so liddle about military tactics dat dey will not be crushed just like I want dem. I sent my men in der big waves, and ven dey got to de Americans dey all said: 'Boo' as loud as dey could holler. Vell according to vat you haf always said, de Americans shouldt have turned and run like blazes. But vat you tink? Dem fool Americans don't know anything about var, and instead of running de odder vaw, dey came right toward us. Some of dem was singing about 'Ve von't come back till it's over, over dere,' or some odder foolish song, and some of dem vere laughing like fools. Dey are so ignorant. But dey are ofel eckless mit deir guns, and dey come toward us und den it vas my men too kder notion dey wanted to go back to der dear aldt Rhine. Ve don't like der dirty Marne river anyhow. And Oh, papa, der Americans use such ofel language. Dey know noddings of kultur und say such ofel dings right before us. Und dey talk blosphemy, too. Vat you tink dey said right in front of my face? One big husky man from a place dey called Missouri, he said—ah, papa, I hate to tell you vat on ofel ting he said—but I can't help it; he said: 'To hell with the kaiser!' Did you ever hear anything so ofel? I didn't tink anybody would say such a ting. It made me so mad. I wouldn't stand and hear such an ofel ting so I hurried und turned around and run mit der boys. Vas I right? Vat? Und, Oh papa, you know dem breastplates vot you sent us—can you get some to put on our backs? You know we are going der odder vaw, now, und der breastplates are no good, for de cowardly Americans are shooting us right in der back. Some of der boys took off deir breastplates and put dem on behind, but der Americans are playing 'Der Star Spangled Banner' on dem mit machine guns. Can't you help us? You remember in your speech you said nothing could stand before the brave German soldiers. Oh, papa, I don't believe dese ignorant Americans ever read your speech, for dey run after us just like ve vas a lot of rabbits. Vot you tink of dot? Can't you send dem some of your speeches right away? Dey don't see how terrible ve are. Can't you send my army back to Belgium, vere ve von all der vinnen and children vot dem Belgians can bring us. But dese rough Americans are so ignorant. Ve can't make dem understand dat ve are der greatest soldiers on earth, and ven ve try to sing 'Deutschland uber alies' dey laff like a lot of monkeys. But ve are getting der best of der Americans. Ve can outrun dem. Papa, if ve are not der best fighters on earth, ve are der best runners. Nobody can keep up mit us ven ve tink of der dear old Rhine, and my army never did tink so much of der dear old river. Let me know vat to do by return post office.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

The United States Government has issued an order to the effect that all newspapers must be paid for in advance before they are mailed. This is necessary to assist in winning the war, because of the scarcity of fuel used in manufacturing paper, and other printers' supplies, and congestion of the mails.

The order is positive, and cannot be ignored without peril to the paper that does it, and disobeying the government, which no loyal paper will do.

From this date forward, no copy of The Crook County Journal will be mailed to any subscriber unless it is paid for in advance, for the reasons given above.

The Journal is $2 a year and worth it. We devote all available space each week to war activities for the government, at the same time supporting every local enterprise of merit. Your renewal is respectfully solicited.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The most direct way of saving and serving the nation is by loyalty to Christianity. It is expected that Miss Mary Ayres will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning at 11 and perhaps at 7:30. You and yours cordially invited.

SAVE THE PITS!

Next week the High School will commence to gather the various fruit pits: peach, plum, cherry, etc. This work has been assigned the Freshman class who will make a systematic collection about the town. 20 peach pits, or seven pounds of nuts are sufficient to produce enough carbon to make one gas respirator. The government will send bags and bills of lading to the schools making such collections. The government asks that the pits be clean.
