COLD FACTS

Old High Cost of Living has so jumped during the past twelve months that mere existence has become a sort of luxury.

Your groceryman tells you he simply has to charge the price asked; the clothier informs you that the same suits he sold for $20 are now $40 and $50 each, and a bargain at that; your milkman strikes you off the list in a hurry if you dare demur to $3.75 per quart a month; your wife's winter coat will cost close to the $60 mark, and her shoes will be a bargain at $14.50. As to your winter's wood pile—the least said the better.

Such are the fruits of war, and such are the burdens to be borne by the great army of the secondary defense.

It's a great life if you don't weaken.

But what would your groceryman say if you asked him to knock off his profit in these troublesome times? What would happen if you informed your shoeman, your milkman, your dry goods man, and the rest of the bunch, that they would have to let you have the goods at reduced price? Would these gentlemen politely accede to your request? They would not. Bankruptcy would follow if they did.

You couldn't expect it—you would not ask it! These are not the good old days of old. Costs have gone up on everything and quite naturally, too.

In view of the general condition of affairs it is a rather astounding bit of legislation that Sam Jackson, editor of the Portland Journal would foist on to the statute books this fall. It is astounding to a person unacquainted with the facts, but to those who understand the motives underlying the proposed measure, Mr. Jackson's scheme is petty, diabolically dirty, and as malicious as any piece of legislation that was ever framed to be "put over" on the citizens of Oregon.

You have your home paper, you believe in it, and you realize that its influence as a community builder is big. Do you know also, that a man high in affairs of the nation has recently stated that the First, Second, Third and Fourth Liberty loan would have never been possible without the generous support of the press of Oregon and of the nation? Do you know, too, that not one cent of advertising was appropriated by the government to help the press make the loan a success?

But to return to Jackson's malicious measure. He and some Portland attorney have decided that the legal advertising rate, which provides that publishers shall not be paid a greater sum than five cents per line, is altogether too high to suit his imperial taste. He therefore has prepared an initiative petition and wants the voters of Oregon to lower the rate, in accordance with his wishes.

This is Millionaire Jackson's way of "getting even" with the press of Oregon. He has been unable to dictate to the thinking editors of the state who have steadily refused to be whipped into line to support Jackson's single tax and other campaigns waged by the Journal. He has chosen the psychological time to carry out his nefarious plan—a time when probably ninety per cent of the papers of the state are struggling to keep the wolf from the door, that they may "carry on" in their important mission of helping Uncle Sam's war activities. It is a scheme quite worthy of Jackson and a really clever way to cut the throats of the country editors. Bring his advertising rates down below cost and you can run him out of the field! Isn't it a commendable work for a millionaire publisher to be engaged in?

Unfortunately for Jackson the voters are onto his little game. They believe in their own communities, they believe in their home papers and they are generous enough to admit that the newspaper men of the state have a God-given right to live in Oregon, in spite of Editor Jackson's personal wishes in the matter.

COAST ARTILLERY NEEDS MEN IMMEDIATELY

Men who want to see action with the big guns of the heavy artillery now have a chance. They may be voluntarily inducted by sending to the Com. Officer, Coast Defenses of the Columbia, Fort Stevens, Oregon, their name; order and registration number, class (number and letter); present address; number and address of local board; and whether qualified for general or limited service.

The heavy artillery is playing more of a deciding role now than ever before and the Coast Artillery Corps, which furnishes the overseas regiments of the big guns, is called upon to rush men into the fight. For this reason the War Department has authorized that men who are registered and classified may volunteer.

This branch offers many opportunities for specialized work and valuable training is provided for the men who will man the varied and interesting capacities of this service.

Men of aptitude who show an eagerness to learn are offered innumerable chances for advancement as non-commissioned officers either within the companies or as specialists such as radio sergeants, master gunners, electricians, observers, photographers, sergeants major or the different kinds of staff duty.

Examinations are regularly held for admission to the officers' training camp. Newly inducted men are eligible no matter how short their service may be and men are now sent to these camps in large number and with greater frequency than ever before.

For the man who is ambitious and who wants to get in a branch that does big things and is never dull, this is his opportunity.

Forward!

With no thought of bursting shrapnel and poisonous gases into which they plunge—with every muscle tense, with every faculty of mind alert, with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

That is the way our men are going into battle. When the shrill whistle sounds the advance, out they go—their whole heart in the task before them. No power on earth can hold them back.

Forward!

The same sharp challenge to battle is sounding for us. We must answer in the same proud way—the way of our fighting men—the American way. We must lend the way they fight.

We must show the war-maddened Hun a united American people moving forward shoulder to shoulder, irresistibly, to Victory.

Our task is to supply the money, the ships, the guns, the shells that we must have to win. It is a tremendous task. We must do it as our fighting men do theirs—with the indomitable spirit of Victory.

We must work, and save, and lend with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

Get into the fight—with your whole heart. Buy Bonds—to the utmost!
