GIVE TAXPAYERS SQUARE DEAL

There is a scheme on foot to wipe out the present delinquent tax law now in effect in Oregon. Those behind the plan would substitute in its place a piece of pernicious legislation, cleverly devised by the Portland Journal and a certain clique of politicians.

The scheme is a clever one at first observation and by reason of the fact that one of the backers of the pro-posed change is a man of independent wealth at the head of a Portland paper, the columns of that paper—the Portland Journal—have been thrown open to further the measure and be-fuddle the voters' min.is at the coming election. By smooth camouflag-ing of the facts, and sometimes by direct misrepresentation the voters are led to believe that the propos-ed measure is one originated and to be passed entirely in their own interest.

This is the influence that comes from reading the Portland Journal's propaganda for the abolishment of the present delinquent tax bill now in force in the State of Oregon.

The editor of this paper is not in the habit of instructing his readers how to vote in various elections. As a rule we consider the voter will sup-port the measures he believes to be of worth and register his protest of worth and register his protest, with a vigorous "NO" on useless or pernicious legislation. This is the rule usually followed by the country newspaper man, but when direct misperesentation of fact is resorted to in an effort to lure the favor of the voting public, it is high time that the voters are advised of true conditions. Therefore the editor of this paper.

Therefore the editor of this paper has the following statement to make to the readers of this paper:

The present delinquent tax law was passed by the State Legislature of Oregon, the men you and I sent to Salem to represent us in affairs of state. lem to represent us in affairs of state.

It is a fair law, devised in the interest of the taxpayer, to give him a square deal in the hour of emergency, and to protect him in that hour from the tax title vulture and the scheming land attorney. It provides for the publication of the delinquent tax iist, it is true, but it also provides—and this is the part of the law the Portand Journal would have you over-look—that publication of the delin-quents shall only be made after a mailed notice has been sent out, regalarly advising the delinquent that his taxes have not been paid. The publication, therefore is but an em-ergency measure, to be resorted to only when personal notice has falled

The taxpayer should quickly real-ize the practical value of such a law. Suppose you were away for the time eing. Or let us assume you have changed your address. In either case a mailed statement would in all probability fail to reach you. Some time later, the delinquent list is published in the home paper, and your friends, relatives, or neighbors notice immediately that you have overlook. immediately that you have overlook-ed your taxes, and hasten to drop you a line. They know where you are the tax collector doesn't bother about you unless you notify him of

The result? The title grabber, that about the books in the tax office, loses a chance to buy your place for a song, and you are saved the embarmassment and work of redeeming your place. This is the present law, and this is exactly the way it works out.

Jackson, working with a certain Portland attorney would cut out the publication requirment of the present law. He would end the matter once and for all with the sending of notice through the mail. If you fail to get at, under his scheme you are the los-er, and some tax title vulture will then pick up some easy money and you will foot the bill. Such is the bill proposed by Jackson and Hagood. Kill it if you would confer a fayor on the taxpayers of Oregon. Vote "NO" on the Jackson delinquent tax bill.

. SAVE THE PITS!

Next week the High School will commence to gather the various fruit pits: peach, plum, cherry, etc. This work has been assigned the Freshman class who will make a systematic collection -about the town. 20 peach pits, or seven pounds of nuts are sufficient to produce enough carbon to make one gas respirator. The government will send bags and bills of lading to the schools making such colections. The government asks that the pits be clean.

MILK AS STRENGTH BUILDER ADVOCATED

Dr. Mae Cardwell, Back From Washington, Advises Housewives.

Dr. Mae H. Cardwell, of Portland, who recently returned to Oregon from Gary, Ind., New York and Washington, where she was engaged in medical research work for the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor, said in Red Cross warehouse here some time an interview: "The dairy industries Saturday night. must be encouraged. The children of America must have milk. They cannot thrive without good clean milk. Housewives must use more milk. If they demand R the dairyman will find some solution to his problems and will see that his cows get the feed and that he keeps them alive and in good health. However, if the women don't order the milk, the dairyman isn't going to keep his cows around just as pets and ornaments. Feed is too scarce and labor too high for that. It's up to the housekeepers.

"Are you sending your breadwinners to work with all the vigor and strength you can muster for them in the way of proper food?" asks Dr. Cardwell, "If they don't get the right food they can't think or work well. The same applies to the school children. See that they have milk to drink; milk in puddings. The kitchen is the power plant of the family and consequently, of the nation. Don't waste a drop of milk or an ounce of butter, but use plenty. The health of the nation is the kitchen question. Milk is one of the main factors in a diet."

Baby Expert Preaches Greater Use Of Milk.

A milk bill and healthy children is cheaper than a doctor's bill and underfed, under-nourished child. It would be cheaper to start right. says Mrs. A. Bayley, of the Parents' Educational Bureau, Oregon Congress of Mothers, who has presided at the testing of thousands of babies. She finds the milkfed youngster of three or four years scores much higher than the child who has had little milk in his diet. Mrs. Bayley preaches a greater use of milk for young and old.

Dairy Commissioner Sees Encouraging Signs.

J. D. Mickle, State Dairy and Food Commissioner, stated recently that the dairy situation, in spite of high prices of feed and scarcity of labor, is not all gloom. Reports have come to him from various parts of the state show ing that the housekeepers are beginning to see that they must pay more for milk than they did a few years ago. The dairymen are beginning to take heart, too, in some instances and are looking to the future when the cow of today will be worth much more money alive than she would now, slaughtered. And that future isn't so far off if the dairymen only continue to have courage and patience.

The wise man and the one who is far-seeing, is keeping his herds intact. True, he won't keep the old boarder who would just eat the food and bring no returns, but he is holding his good stock. The sensible housewife, too must know a man can't feed and care for cows, keep a first class dairy, and provide clean bottles and well paid deliverymen wi hout some expense The Oregon Dairy Council is doing much to get the situation straightened out. The exhibit at the state fair, the splendid cooperation of the Food Administration, the public schools, Oregon Agricultural College and the Bureau of Health, all help the educational work and are part of the great task of "keeping the home fires burning," which task includes the preservation of essential home industries and the health of the nation.

A farmer may slaughter his dairy herd in three hours but he could not replace it in three years,
