The Tri-State Terminal Company will be just six months old on January 1, 1919. It has grown to be a husky youngster in that time and due to your care and patronage. We thank you very heartily for your share in our growth. We wish you to know we appreciate it and as we enter the New Year we are determined to put forward extra effort to be more worthy of your patronage. We will have a larger and better stock for your selection. Again we thank you and wish you a Merry Christmas.
