

Anniversary Sale!

Cornett and Company

This great sale is now in full swing, and only a few days left for the many thrifty shoppers who wish to take advantage of these great savings. We have talked to the best informed men on the Pacific Coast, and also the largest operators in the East, as to the prices on merchandise for next year, and here is what they say to us:

Supply and demand are still far apart, and they say to us frankly that spring prices will be much higher than present prices. Our interest in such a condition is naturally very great. The opportunity for profitable buying is presented to the people of Prineville and the community at this store. Men, women and children come to this store and get 20 per cent off, which means a great deal on some of the articles listed below.
