WITH THE EXCHANGES
Claron Rhea and Floyd Fox, two mountain trappers have received returns from a Chicago fur house for six coyote hides and two weasel skins. They got $95 for the shipment, which is at the rate of about $15 each for the coyote hides.—Weston Leader.

Unusually high wind blew in Grande Ronde Valley Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, doing considerable damage to telephone and light poles, fences and insecure buildings. The wind was perhaps of the greatest velocity of any wind in this section during the past fifteen years. Such winds are very unusual in this country. Weekly Republican, Jan 18.

The elements turned loose Tuesday night and tore things up in general. Few people were able to sleep for fear they might wake up in an unknown country and not be able to find their way back home. When Wednesday morning came the debris was scattered everywhere. Telephone and electric light poles, chimneys and barns were blown down.—Joseph Herald.

One of the most important matters of interest to the people of Powder river valley and especially those of Haines, was made public this week, when the announcement to the effect that the county court would build a macadam road from Baker to Haines this year, was made.
An appropriation of $84,000 has been made by the state for this purpose, while the county will assume the cost of grading. The macadamized road will not be the "straight" road agitated a few years ago, but will follow the county highway.—The Haines Record.

John McEntire, prosperous sheepman of this county, who has been running the Whetstone ranch on Hinton creek for the past two or three years, closed a deal with G. U. Krebs the past week whereby he takes over 4,360 acres of land situated on Skinner fork. This land is partly range and partly wheat land and is one of the best places in that part of the county. The consideration involved the sum of $53,000. Mr. Krebs and his sons took hold of this land about four years ago, coming here from Portland. They made good and have returned to that city to reside for the present.—Gazette-Times.

After a brief attack of influenza, following a protracted illness of several months, Mrs. Charlotte R. Carter, wife of Joseph Carter, of this city, died at the family residence at 11:45 o'clock last night, aged 53 years. Funeral services will be held tomorrow from the Niswonger chapel, Rev. H. C. Hartrant, of the Presbyterian church, officiating.
In addition to her husband, Mrs. Carter is survived by eight sons and daughters, as follows: James, Henry, and Frank Carter, of Bend; Mrs. Ethel Carnine, of Bend; Mrs. Susie Anderson, Colfax, Wn.; Mrs. Anna Bouery, of Vale; and Mary and Daisy Carter of Bend.—Bend Bulletin.

Powell Butte
WSS NEWS NOTES WSS
Wm. Wurzwiler & Sons shipped 203 head of feeders to Idaho the first of the week. Dan Clarke was the Buyer.
Many hundred head of cattle and sheep are being fed in the Powell Butte section this winter. Hay that was formerly shipped out in this year being fed on the ranch where it was grown. Both cattle and sheep are brought here from as far as Lake and Klamath counties.

A few young lambs are coming along. All have been saved so far. A fine fall of snow came Sunday morning, causing the farmer and stockman to rejoice over insured moisture, and more rain than your correspondent ever saw at this season and as the frost appears to be out of the ground, it will all be taken up by the soil.
Jake and Chris Brix were business visitors in Prineville Monday.
Mrs. Stella Shearer has returned to Oreweller's Mill. She was called here to nurse little Ruth, who has now completely recovered from her recent attack of flu.
Lloyd and Fay Bussett visited in Prineville Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kissler and children and also Grandma Spray, were Redmond visitors recently.
The new house that Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pauls are building on their "ditch" land is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.
School is in session again in the Edwards district, as Miss Bussett, the teacher, has recovered from the flu.
Owing to the illness in so many homes, it has been impossible for but few of the women to do Red Cross work. But we hope the situation will soon change, as much work is needed and the workers are few.
