MASS MEETING CALLED TO CONSIDER SHOW

WILL RAISE $6,000 FOR PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL

PLANS FOR INTER-STATE FAIR

Success Of Local Show Is Influenced By The Big Portland Exposition

There will be a mass meeting at the Commercial Club Saturday evening at 7:30 at which time the matter of Crook county's quota for the Pacific International Livestock Show at Portland will be discussed, and also plans for the coming Oregon Inter-State Fair in this city.

Crook county has been allotted a quota of $6,000.00 out of the fund of a half million which is to be raised for the Portland show, which is to be the biggest and most complete show in the nation, only the Chicago Exposition and the Portland show will compare favorably with that of the windy city.

The success of the Oregon Inter-State Fair will be influenced somewhat by the Portland show, and the meeting which is to be held Saturday will bring out facts and their bearing on the local situation.

All stock men, business men, citizens and everyone else who happens to be in the city Saturday evening is urged to attend this meeting and take the necessary steps to protect the interests of greatest importance to the state and county and Prineville as well.

STATE ENGINEER SAYS WORK SATISFACTION

State Engineer Percy A. Cupper, who was in Prineville yesterday looking over the Ochoco Irrigation Project, has the following to say: "The progress on the Ochoco Dam is surely most satisfactory and great strides have been made since my last visit here."

Engineer Cupper is attending the Irrigation School which is in session at Redmond this week.

FINDS LIFE TOO EASY

Stirs Up Trouble For His Own Love Affair

It takes something smashing to wake up a fellow born to a feather bed.

William Russell as Gregory Thorne rich man's son, bound to marry Marta Milbanke, the prettiest girl in the world, discovered that he had won her too easily in "Up Romance Road," his latest Mutual play. He wanted to fight for her.

So when war broke out he lit into a band of spies and contrived to save his father-in-law's warehouse from destruction by copping the spy game.

Of course, pretty Marta was mixed up in the affair, and equally of course Gregory profited by being first on the job. The society man won his wife by fighting as he hoped to do.

ALFALFA ABOY RETURNS WITH CROIX DE GUERRE

Ralph Ferry, of the U. S. Marine Corps, returned home last week, a veteran of the world war and wearing the croix de guerre, which was awarded for gallantry in action in the famous Belleau Wood. He enlisted in August, 1917, and saw action in the Verdun sector, Chateau Thierry, Belleau Wood and Soissons. He aided in capturing three German machine gun nests in the fact of a withering fire and was unable to get food for three days.

He is a brother of Albert Ferry, who attended Crook County High and is well known in Prineville.

★ SQUARE DEAL FOR EVERY INCOME TAX PAYER. ★
★ Washington, D. C. — "The rights of all persons now filing Income Tax returns are amply protected by provisions for abatement, refunds and appeals," says Commissioner Daniel C. Roper.
★ "Every person can be sure of a square deal. No person is expected to pay more than his share of tax. His share is determined solely by the amount and nature of his net income for 1918, as defined in the law."
★ "Abatement petitions are dealt with open-mindedly. Refunds will be made in every case where too much tax is erroneously collected."
★ "The Income Tax is 'on the level' all the way through."

CROOK CO. HI IN LINE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

C. C. H. S. HAS WON 3 GAMES AND HAS LOST 2 GAMES

BEND CLAIMS CHAMPIONSHIP

Agreement Was Two Games To Be Played Between Each School—Bend Failed On Return Game

The basketball situation in Central Oregon seems at a standstill because of the fact that Bend High refuses to play the return game with C. C. H. S. as per their agreement.

Bend H. S. comes up with the argument that as neither the Redmond or Madras floors are regulation floors they should both be barred from the association, and as she won from C. C. H. S. on her own floor, therefore she has won the championship of Central Oregon. That is just as clear as mud. What we cannot understand is why Bend did not make this objection at the beginning of the season. If she had done so she would not have had to play a game to win the championship. Just eliminate all the contestants and then declare herself the champion.

The standing of the Central Oregon teams is as follows: C. C. H. S. has won 3 games and lost 2; Bend H. S. has won 2 games and lost 3; Madras H. S. has won 3 and lost 2; and Redmond is out of the race.

C. C. H. S. has played one game with Bend H. S. on the Bend floor, the game being won by Bend. They were to play a return game here February 28, as their agreement which follows will show:

COPY
"January 13, 1919,

"Mr. Eugene Miller, Prineville, Oregon,
"Dear Sir—Yours of Jan. 14 at hand, and dates for games etc. are entirely satisfactory.

"We shall expect you February 7, and our team will go to Prineville February 28.

Very truly yours,
S (ingd) RALPH C. JOHNSON,
"Principal of Schools."

But after stalling around as long as possible they refuse to come to Prineville for the reasons above stated, which are exactly no reasons at all. We wonder if the recent game between C. C. H. S. and Madras H. S. did not frighten them somewhat. However, they have shown very poor sportsmanship and it is up to them to come through or forfeit the championship.

If C. C. H. S. should win the said game, which was to be played here with Bend, then the final game of the championship series would have been played with Madras on the Bend floor, to decide which team should represent Central Oregon at Eugene.

The following letter was sent to the principal of the Bend H. S.:

"March 4, 1919
"Mr. R. C. Johnson, Principal,
"Bend High School,
"Bend, Oregon,

"Dear Sir—Referring to phone conversation of even date with your coach, T. D. Sexton, in which he puts forth a claim of the basketball championship of the association for your team, we submit the following reply:

"It was agreed that two games should be played between the two teams, as per copy herewith. By this agreement there is still one game due us, which we have stood ready to play at the times agreed upon, and claim our right to have such game played before the time for the state games at Eugene.

"We do not approve of the stand taken by Mr. Sexton, that, owing to the alleged fact that the floor at Redmond is not a regulation floor, that games played thereon are not binding. This ruling would serve to debar Redmond from future participation in the games of the association on their floor, making all their games obligatory upon a neutral floor, either that at Prineville or at Bend.

"Further, by the same contention, Madras would be debarred in a like manner, as their floor is even less true to regulation type than that of Redmond.

"If you insist upon your stand, we submit the fact that, barring the games of this season played upon the Redmond and the Madras floors, the record shows that Bend team has won two games and lost one game upon the floors at Prineville and Bend; and this is also the record of the Prineville team. This constitutes a tie, and we insist upon our right of playing off this tie in time to compete at Eugene, should we be the successful contestant in the local association, whose champion must be decided by the game yet to be played between the teams of Bend and Prineville high schools.

"We shall claim the championship by forfeit, if you fail to make satisfactory arrangements for the playing of the game in ample time to permit the winner to take part in the contests at Eugene.

"A very prompt reply is essential as the time is short. Awaiting your word in the matter, we remain,
"Yours truly,
"E. E. EVANS, Prin. C. C. H. S."

COMING! VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN PREPARE FOR IT

GOV. WITHYCOMBE DIES VERY SUDDENLY

PASSES AWAY AT HIS HOME AT 8:45 MARCH THIRD

HIS DEATH IS A GREAT SHOCK

Death Is Ascribed To A General Breakdown In Health Beginning Several Months Ago

Salem, Ore., March 4.—Governor James Withycombe, Oregon's 15th Chief Executive, died suddenly at his Salem home at 8:45 o'clock last night. The summons came at the end of a day which the governor had given to the study of a large number of bills passed by the recent legislature, several of which he approved and one of which he vetoed during the day. Ben Alcott, secretary of state, succeeded immediately to the governorship.

Chester A. Moores, private secretary of the late Governor Withycombe, said today that arrangements for the funeral of the governor cannot be made until the arrival of the governor's son, Robert Withycombe, from Eastern Oregon. He is expected today and the funeral arrangements may be made and announced late this afternoon.

While Governor Withycombe had been in broken physical condition for months, which many of his friends believed was grave, the end was not believed to be so near, and those who have been closest to him in the recent strenuous weeks were surprised and shocked at the sudden announcement of his death. With him, at his passing were Mrs. Withycombe, Miss Mabel Withycombe, his daughter, Earl Withycombe, his youngest son, and Mrs. Harry Withycombe a daughter-in-law. His son, Harry Withycombe, is on his way to Salem from Havre, Mont., and another son, Robert Withycombe, is coming from Union, Oregon.

The governor's death is not ascribed to any particular cause, but to a general breaking down in health which began several months ago. More noticeably, the governor had been falling for the last two weeks. The tasks that confronted Governor Withycombe during a large part of his term of office, due to war conditions, were more difficult than those faced by any previous governor. This and the strenuousness of his last political campaign, and fifty months of worry caused by the critical illness of his son, Earl Withycombe, in a government hospital in Washington, D. C., the latter part of last year, are believed to have been the main causes of his failure in health.

Secretary of State Olcott, now governor, today directed that the regular March meeting of the state board of control scheduled for today, be postponed until after the funeral. Secretary of State Olcott had the flags on the state buildings placed at half-mast.

Governor Withycombe was the only republican governor who ever succeeded himself in office in Oregon, and he began his second term last January. For a quarter of a century he had been actively in the service of the state. Seventeen years of his life he served as director of the Oregon Agricultural College experiment station, and for a number of years he was state veterinarian. Doubtless the primary ideal that he set in his public life was to see Oregon become the leading agricultural state of the union.

Farming in a general way and particularly development of the dairying industry and the culture of clover took much of his attention. He was instrumental in increasing the dairying out put of the state from $3,500,000 annually, when he became director of the experiment station, to $20,000,000 annually when he quit that office. It has been estimated that while serving as director and traveling over the state he addressed not less than 280,000 people on subjects of better farming and the better development of the livestock industry.

Governor Withycombe served as president of the Northwest Sheep Breeders' Association and of the Northwest Wool Growers' Association and was a member of the boards of trustees of the Oregon Academy of Sciences and of the Wool Growers' Association. Some years ago the Oregon Agricultural College conferred upon him the degree of M. of Agr. Governor Withycombe was a member of the grange and his lodge affiliations were with the Masons and with Albany Lodge No. 359, B. P. O. E.

CLARK, KENDALL & CO. MOVE THEIR OFFICES

NEW LOCATION IS ON THE GROUND FLOOR

ON COR. OF FIFTH AND STARK

Alterations Are Being Done Under The Direction Of E. B. McNaughton, Architect

By selection of a ground floor location, the firm of Clark Kendall & Co., investment bankers, will move from their headquarters on the second floor of the Northwest Bank Building to the building formerly occupied by the North Bank Railway ticket office at the southeast intersection of Fifth and Stark streets. The firm's new home will be opposite the First National Bank. A lease has been obtained also on the space adjoining the corner, at 102 Fifth street, and the floor space to be occupied will be double that of the old quarters. Alterations will be made under the direction of E. B. McNaughton, architect.

Organized March 1, 1906, the firm of Clark, Kendall & Co., bought the business of Wilfred Shore & Co., with which Walter Kendall was associated. He came to Portland from Honolulu, where he was manager of the investment department of the Waterhouse Trust Company for eight years. Willis K. Clark, the senior member of the firm, was engaged in the investment business in Portland at the time he joined Mr. Kendall. Mr. Clark was executive secretary of the Portland campaign committee during the third and fourth Liberty Loan campaigns and was active also in the two preceding drives.

The business of Clark, Kendall & Co. grew so rapidly that Ralph H. Schneeloch was admitted to the partnership in the fall of 1917. He was in the public utility business in Pittsburgh for three years, and the following eight years was president and manager of a company engaged in the reclamation and farming of irrigated lands near Jerome and Wendell, Idaho.

Associated with the firm are Lester B. Wood, formerly president of the First National bank of Jerome; Alan Green, formerly with Robertson & Ewing of this city, and Guy N. Hickok, formerly cashier of the Aurora State bank and a director of the Monitor State bank.

The firm of Clark, Kendall & Co. has developed an extensive business in handling securities, particularly Oregon and Idaho municipal bonds, besides government issues and corporate securities, and larger quarters are now imperative. Among its achievements have been the formation and management of syndicates by which the Ochoco and Warm Springs irrigation districts were successfully financed thus enabling the construction financing of some of the most important undertakings in this State.

As correspondents of the Equitable Trust Company and Spencer, Trask & Co., of New York, the firm of Clark, Kendall & Co. is equipped for offering attractive investments to local capital. The firm also represents the Mortgage Bond Company of New York.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF VOICING THREATS

BRANIOLDO ZANNATTI ARRESTED BY U. S. MARSHAL

TO BE GIVEN HEARING FRIDAY

Branioldo Zannatti, unaturalized Italian, was placed under arrest at his ranch near this city yesterday afternoon by Deputy U. S. Marshal F. B. Tichenor, on a charge made by three of his countrymen to the effect that he would kill the president of the United States if he was prevented from bringing his wife to this country from Italy.

Zannatti was released on a bond of $1,000 and will appear in the United States court here on Friday of this week before commissioner Lake M. Bechtell, when a preliminary hearing will be given him.

The accused man has been a resident of this vicinity for the past eight years, has made application for naturalization and is considered a good reliable man by those who know him. Deputy United States Attorney Barnett H. Goldstein will arrive from Portland tomorrow morning and will have charge of the prosecution of the case.

Interest is added to the case by the fact that Tichenor is the man who arrested Henry Albers on a federal charge recently, and Attorney Goldstein is the man who conducted the Albers prosecution. The Zannatti ranch is situated about a mile east of the city limits and much development work has been done there during the last year by Mr. Zannatti.
