

THE CITY

Mrs. L. T. McCoy was visiting relatives in the city on Wednesday.

Max Cunning of Redmond was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Denton G. Burdick of Redmond was in the city on business Tuesday.

Samuel Ritter of Powell Butte was called to the city on business Friday.

Jesse Stearns of Portland was a business visitor in Prineville on Tuesday.

Eibert Houston of Roberts spent a few days visiting relatives here last week.

John and Eddie Bolter of Gateway were visiting relatives in the city on Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart, March 20, 1919, a 9 1/2 pound daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Montgomery were visitors at the court house on Wednesday.

Warren Brown and W. J. Pancake motored to Powell Butte on business Wednesday.

Arthur Sears of Howard was looking after business interests in Prineville last Friday.

Frank Post a rancher of Alfalfa was a business visitor at the court house on Friday.

R. E. Jones and wife of Howard were business visitors in the city the first of the week.

E. L. Ashby, formerly of this city was getting supplies on Saturday for his ranch near Post.

H. G. Kennard, water master, was attending to some business matters in Bend on Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Horrigan left Wednesday for Gateway to visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Cram.

Arthur Everett and J. O. Morris of Barnes were business visitors at the court house on Monday.

George Truesdale was in the city the first of the week from his alfalfa ranch at Powell Butte.

From the appearance of sporting goods displayed by the Lakin Hardware, we are reminded that the baseball season is on.

Allen Wilcoxon was in the city Friday attending to business matters in connection with his sheep ranch at Powell Butte.

On Monday night at the Lyric theater the Hawaiian Troubadurs presented a high class program of music, singing and dancing. The house was packed and all were unanimous in their approval of the performance.

F. E. Fortner of Powell Butte has been elected vice president and manager of the bank at Moro. He will leave in about a week to take up his duties. Mr. Fortner's brother, Archie, will manage the ranch for him.

Lawrence Lister returned Monday from Camp Lewis with his discharge from military service. He was at Camp Grant until three weeks ago, when he was returned to Camp Lewis for his discharge, which he just recently received.

Following the show at the Lyric, a dance was given at the Club Hall by the Hawaiian orchestra. There was a large attendance of both young and old who thoroughly enjoyed the evening as Prineville seldom gets such good music for dancing.

George Euston of the Crook County Bank has purchased the Warren Crooks property in Noble Addition with the intention of making it his home. This is a modern house in a desirable location. Mr. Euston is to be complimented on his business sagacity.

Those who have business with the Oregon & Western Colonization Co. in Prineville about April 1, are hereby notified that B. F. Johnson will be on hand for the transaction of business on the above date as promised, but owing to sickness in his family, Mr. Davidson cannot be here until about April 5.

F. E. Lafler has repainted and renovated the interior of "The Art Shop" He has used a different color tone to get a better lighting effect in his photography work. Mr. Lafler reports that business prospects are good as he now has more than he can attend to alone and will be forced to get someone to help him.

LYRIC THEATER

Frank Brosius, Roy Moffitt and Warren Yancey have reached New York on their way home from overseas duty.

A dance was given at the Club Hall Friday evening at which about twenty couples participated. A good time was reported by all.

D. P. Connes, from Washington, a carpenter by trade, has come to make his home in Prineville and is located in the Cottrell house.

Word has been received that Mrs. Joe Smelzer died last week and was buried at Kelsey, California. No other details have been received.

Ada Morse, who has been employed for several years in Redmond, has resigned to accept a position with the Tri-State Terminal Co., Prineville's new store.

We are glad to see that Nell Newsome has entirely recovered from the effects of the operation for appendicitis and is back again in the dry goods department of Cornett & Co.

Another reasonable suggestion is the display of spring suits, coats, dresses, waists, and dress goods in each of the two main dry goods stores, Cornett & Co., and Jordan & Hyde.

We were agreeably surprised last Friday by a call from our old friend, Robert Osborn. He is visiting friends and relatives here while enjoying a ten days' vacation period from Reed College.

Our grocery and general merchandise stores are sprucing up and getting ready for the rush of spring business. They tell us that the indications are good for a prosperous season for all.

The "Cedars," the young ladies' class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, entertained at a St. Patrick's party last Saturday evening. Everyone reports a splendid time and declare the young ladies royal entertainers.

J. L. Miner lately moved to his old garden place on the Hines ranch. He reports the prospects look good and will garden more than he has ever before. Watch for his ad in the Journal when fruit and vegetables are ready for use.

A BIG LARD SAVING
 On Saturday, April 5, I will sell half-gallon pails of lard at $1.25 and one gallon pails at $2.50. These prices are for one day only. Ten cents and fifteen cents, respectively, paid for empty pails returned. Remember, these prices are only made on cash sales.
 GERARDO MARKET.

DEATH OF FORMER CITIZEN

Word has just been received of the death of D. L. Wild of LaGrande on March 5th. Mr. Wild was formerly owner of the Crook County Abstract Company and managed it for several years. He has many friends here who will regret to learn of his demise.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Boyce, of Madras, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lithgow and family, of Lamonta, were guests on Sunday at a dinner given by Mrs. John Bolter for her father, S. S. Brown, in honor of his 75th birthday.

Mr. Brown is hale and hearty in spite of his advanced years and enjoyed the big dinner as well as any, but he thought that 75 candles on one cake were altogether too many to light.

IN THE MATTER OF CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS

West Third Street is worthy of note. On the one side, J. E. Stewart & Co., have repainted both the exterior and interior of their store, have remodeled the interior to allow for a large display rack near the entrance, which is covered with enticing things to eat, and have enlarged the office to about ten by sixteen feet, painted and papered it and put in new office furniture, making it strictly modern.

Just across the street C. W. Elkins is putting the finishing touches to his new implement store. He has a thirty-five foot front with two large plate glass windows and a wide doorway enclosed with a glass paneled three section folding door. The floor space is thirty-five feet by seventy feet, and the most of this will be used for the display of implements set up ready for use. A large office has been partitioned off in one front corner. On the other side, at the front, racks have been built for the display of extras for the machinery. The store as a whole is arranged toward efficiency in handling the implement line.

TIME EXTENDED ON THE SLOGAN CONTEST

Two weeks have been added to the period of the Victory Loan slogan contest. Instead of closing March 22 the final day will be April 5.

This extension of time was made at the request of the Southern California Liberty Loan committee, which will make a special campaign to arouse interest during the last three weeks in the hope that good enough slogans may be created to give Southern California the distinction of winning all three of the cash prizes of $30, $20, and $10.

The only limit in the contest is the number of words that can be used in any slogan. Twelve is the limit, but the shorter the better, declares the Slogan Editor, who adds, "We want a stirring battle cry that will express the spirit of the country in floating this last loan."

Here are a few of the thousands that have been submitted:
 "Victory Bonds Bind Victory."
 "Don't Quit Because the Kaiser Did."
 "Are You Grateful? Loan."
 "What is Victory Worth to You?"
 "Prosperity for Posterity."
 "You Ordered Victory. Pay the Price."
 "This Loan is the Last. Finish it Fast."
 "If You Don't Like Our Victory Loan, Try Germany's."

UNITED ARTISANS GROWING

Prineville Assembly No. 163, United Artisans, passed thirty candidates for insurance and membership on Monday evening, March 17, after which a program was rendered, followed by dancing, a five piece orchestra playing splendid music with such effect that the floor was overcrowded part of the time. Sister Supreme Deputy Cahow presented them with a token of sweets at the close of the evening's entertainment. The Assembly wishes to thank all who contributed their services to make the evening a success.

The Worthy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star order will make her annual visit to the lodge Thursday night March 20, which is tonight. A full attendance is desired.

We are informed by the City of Prineville Railroad Commission that hereafter stockmen shipping cattle will have to furnish a list of all brands shipped. These lists must be made up in duplicate form.
