BEND IS MECCA FOR OREGON STOCKMEN

FIVE HUNDRED EXPECTED TO ATTEND CONVENTION COMMITTEE HAS PLANS MADE

An Instructive And Important Meeting of Oregon Cattle & Horse Ass'n in Bend This Week

More than 500 stockmen are expected to invade Bend on April 22, when the annual convention of the Oregon Cattle and Horse Raisers' Association is held here, and the local committee in charge of arrangements for the entertainment of the association members is making great preparations to show the city's guests a royal time. Baker alone will send a delegation of 30 stockmen, according to Secretary S. O. Correll, who has written asking that accommodations be reserved for this number.

Aside from the important business of the sessions held, a feature of the convention will be a cowboy breakfast, which will be served in a corral to be constructed on the river bank near the Pilot Butte Inn. Round-up beefs will prepare huge quantities of "bacon and" and sour dough bread, with black coffee of sufficient strength and quantity to keep the visiting delegates on their toes for the balance of the day.

A ranch dinner, with yands furnished by the Central Oregon Stockmen and their wives, will be another bit of entertainment which, it is predicted, will be long remembered by the Cattle and Horse Raisers' Association. This feature is being planned on the suggestion of George Russell of Prineville, who was largely instrumental in bringing the convention to Bend.

Flying squadrons are now at work throughout Central and Eastern Oregon to insure a large and representative attendance by the stockmen from those districts.—Bend Bulletin.

VICTORY ROSE FESTIVAL IN PORTLAND JUNE 11-12-13

Included in the elaborate plans for a monster celebration of the Victory Rose Festival in Portland June 11, 12, and 13, 1919, is a flight by military planes from the government field at Los Angeles to Portland, where an air meet is to be held.

The Festival directors have secured encouragement from the War Department and final arrangements will be made next month. It is expected. General Bruce B. Disque, who was in command of the spruce work for the government, endorsed the project and the War Department has indicated that the wishes of the directors will be met when the time comes.

The Victory Rose Festival will exceed any that Portland has offered in the past for it is to be a dual event. The men returning from the Great War will find a tremendous welcome and the usual features of the annual Festival will be augmented by a street carnival extending over many blocks and a Festival center where the flowers of the world will bloom in profusion during the three days of tribute to the Rose.

A series of military pageants will be included in the program and the annual inspection of the Portland Police Department coupled with an extensive demonstration of the Safety First work will be one of the features for the opening day.

The directors have offered a cash prize of $15 for the best slogan of seven words and a $25 cash prize for the most appropriate poster. All entries must be submitted to the Festival headquarters, 218 Pittcock Block, Portland, Oregon, not later than 5 p. m. on March 31.
