A Voice From the Orient

Julius Caesar Nayphe Comes to Chautauqua With Spectacular Lecture-Entertainment

Julius Caesar Nayphe, a young Athenian of noble birth, is coming to Chautauqua on the opening night with a lecture-entertainment unlike anything you have ever heard.

Born in Athens, educated in Palestine, a graduate of the University of Bagdad, Mesopotamia, a university student in England and later of our own Harvard, this young Athenian has created a furor of enthusiasm wherever he has appeared. He brings with him the gorgeous costumes of the Armenians, Syrians and peoples of the near East, making his lecture-entertainment a spectacular pageant of the Orient. He tells of the Holy Land, which he knows so well, of the social customs, of the religion and of the betrothal and marriage customs.

GERMANS AGREE TO SIGN PEACE TREATY

The National Assembly Votes 237 to 138 For Acceptance.

Berlin—Germany will sign the peace treaty. The national assembly, by a vote of 237 to 138, decided to sign. On the question of signing the treaty five members of the assembly abstained from voting.

The assembly also voted confidence in the new government of Herr Bauer, 236 to 89. Sixty-eight members abstained from voting.

Before the vote of confidence was taken, Herr Bauer, the new premier, declared that the government would sign the treaty but without acknowledging the responsibility of the German people for the war and without accepting the obligations contained in articles 227 to 230 in the treaty relating to the trial of the former emperor and the extradition of other German personages.

In announcing the decision of the government to sign the peace terms, Premier Bauer said before the national assembly:

"The allied and associated powers cannot expect the German people to agree from inner conviction to a peace instrument, whereby, without the populations being consulted, living members are severed from the German empire, German sovereignty permanently violated and unbearable economic and financial burdens imposed upon the German people."

UNITED STATES WILL AWAIT SENATE ACTION

Paris—It is authoritatively stated President Wilson intends to defer any action relative to American participation in the league of nations until the senate has ratified or rejected the peace treaty and the American position has been definitely established concerning the league.

It is stated no agreement of any kind will be made until the senate finally acts.

Meantime, such work as is being done on the league is wholly tentative so far as the United States is concerned, and while there is every hope and expectation the covenant will be ratified as part of the treaty, it is said authoritatively there is no purpose to anticipate this result or in any way commit the country to ratification.

ALLIES REFUSE CHANGES

Council Demands Unconditional Acceptance or Armies Will Advance.

Paris.—The council of four definitely rejected the German suggestion that further alterations be made in the peace treaty.

The council received four notes from the Germans, which are supposed to have been prepared in advance and were held to await advices from Weimar on the result of the meeting of the assembly.

One of these, from the new German government, declared Germany was ready to sign peace if the clauses making Germany responsible for the war and calling for the trial of the former emperor were eliminated.

The council after consideration of the notes took its decision to reject the German request.

It is understood that the allies insist on absolutely unconditional acceptance of the terms.

Samuel Gompers, the veteran labor leader, who was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor.

LABOR CONVENTION ELECTS GOMPERS

Atlantic City, N. J.—Samuel Gompers was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor at the organization's convention here and was voted a salary of $10,000 a year.

While radicalism received a severe setback at the convention, leaders declare they have accomplished their purpose of spreading propaganda. Measures seeking amnesty for political prisoners, recognition of soviet Russia, formation of a labor party and the establishment of May day were not endorsed by the convention.

On the other hand the federation declared its determination to break up the judicial systems which enable employers to secure injunctions and otherwise to crush workers. The convention decided further to organize, regardless of consequences, the half a million steel workers and the negro labor of the south.

The federation failed to endorse the six-hour day and other plans for solving unemployment. The convention also failed utterly to suggest methods for a solution of this serious problem.
