Powell Butte

NEWS NOTES

Geo. Whitsett is hauling wool for J. E. Warner.

Jack O'Callahan also sent out four big truck loads of wool last week.

Powell Butte Sorosis meets this week at the home of Mrs. J. J. Chapman. This meeting is to entertain the children of members and every woman is required to bring a child; if she has none of her own she must borrow one for the occasion.

The ice cream social given by the Sunday school on Friday night was a success, both financially and socially.

E. B. Williams is building another bunk house on his ranch here.

Frank Foster and Frank McCaffrey were visitors at the county seat Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oliver, who live at the O'Callahan ranch, on Thursday, June 19, a daughter, her name is Ida Kathleen.

Mrs. A. W. Bayne and Miss Hazel Bayne went to Portland Thursday where they will visit for a short time and Mrs. Bayne will go to San Francisco to enter Mount Zion Hospital for training. Mrs. Bayne will return after her visit in Portland.

Ora Foster and family returned home Wednesday from a motor trip to the Willamette valley. Mrs. Martha Foster, who went with them, will remain there for a while.

C. L. Williams is here from San Diego to spend the summer with his son, E. B. Williams, who operates a large alfalfa ranch.

Miss "Sammy" Tucker of Paisley is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Oliver on the O'Callahan place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Riggs and Mr. and Mrs. Reaves Wilcoxen went to Suttle Lake and spent the week end camping and fishing.

Delbert French, former resident of this section, and while here secretary of the Powell Butte Cooperative Club, was visiting among friends here a few days last week. Mr. French was well fitted up for farming when the call came and he was needed and he gave up all, made a sale, sent his wife to his father's home and went to war. He did not go overseas, however, but was stationed most of the time at Camp Grant, Illinois. Mr. French is planning to take post graduate work at the University of Wisconsin and will specialize in Rural Home Life and scientific farming. Mrs. French and child will accompany him and remain in the east while he is in school.

A jolly picnic and fishing party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitsett and children, Mrs. Mary Twest and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lewis and children, Mr. Elliott from Cottage Grove and little Vera Burson of Bend, who is visiting at the home of Henry Whitsett, spent Sunday at Tetherow bridge, fishing and otherwise enjoying the out of doors. They report a good catch.

Another bunch who report great luck fishing in the Deschutes on Sunday last were Ross Bussett, Floyd Bussett and Dewey Shobert.

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Sunday of Gresham are visiting Mrs. Sunday's sister, Mrs. Roy Roberts. They will remain about ten days or two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reynolds brought Rev. Hasleton out to his appointments at Community Hall on Sunday. They "dinnered" at the E. A. Bussett home and returned home in the evening.

Mrs. Arthur Wuraweller and Mrs. Hugh Stewart went to Prineville on Tuesday.

Harold Moore has bought a Ford and is enjoying it very much.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. W. Caboon, Field Worker for the Deschutes Association, will preach Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject: "Ruth and Orpah, or Choosing and Following."

The Bible school meets in the morning at 10. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 8. You are cordially invited.
